Office McCLURE'S MAGAZINE. New York Feb. 27, 1894.

My Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Enclosed are two clippings from recent New York papers about Rosa Bonheur and her animals.

I haven't time now to answer your letter of Feb. 12th, but will write you fully by the next mail. I think that we can arrange to take a considerable amount of manuscript for the magazine and syndicate service, so that you can rely upon having a certain income from us.

I am glad to see that you took hold of the telegraph matter. We shall have to put it through quickly, in order to come out at the proper time.

Very sincerely yours,

S. S. McClure
