THIS LETTER WRITTEN FROM
~~OUTLET TO THE THEATRE BUILDING~~ CLEVELAND
2443 Prospect Ave.

December 20, 1918.

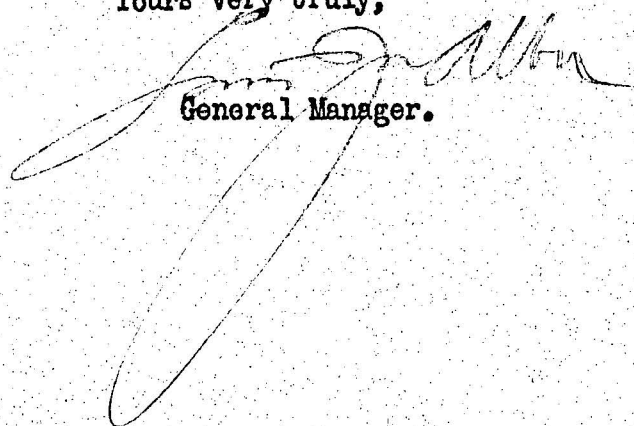

Miss Ida Tarbell,
132 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have not heard from you, and am wondering if you have left this country or if you are ill. If you are still in this country I will be pleased to know how long you expect to stay here.

If possible we would like to arrange for you to fill the lecture engagements booked for you, before you go. These no doubt could be grouped during the early part of January, if you are not planning to sail until later in the month.

Yours very truly,

General Manager.

LJA-MC.
