My dear Miss Tarbell:

Yesterday I visited the office of our Society in Public Library building for first time in about a month, and to my great joy there was your beautiful autographed photograph awaiting me. It was splendid of you to remember me. I appreciate it immensely.

It has been framed and is hanging in my study now as I write this note.

I am particularly interested in your book "The Footsteps of the Lincolns" since it mentions my ancestors the Sallads of Monmouth County, N. J. Richard Sallad's daughter Hannah Bonne Sallad Lowery married Murdoch Pritchard.

I thought that you might be interested to know that I am an ardent admirer of your old friend, Frederic Home. His autographed photo hangs near yours in my study.

With sincere appreciation of your kindness,

I am

Respectfully yours,
Ida Tarbell
