

The Woman's Journal
(Formerly The Woman Citizen)

THE EDITORIAL OFFICE
VIRGINIA RODRICK
Editor

171 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK

May 14, 1930

Miss Ida Tarbell,
R. F. D. 3,
Bethel, Connecticut.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

We think the article is a splendid argument for your position, and are deeply grateful to you.

I wanted to write you, but failed to get the country address from Mrs. Wolfe, and then couldn't reach her at the right moment. So I gave her a message for you in case she was wiring. This is only to explain why I didn't send you word at once.

With much gratitude,

Very cordially,

Virginia Rodrick

VR. CL