Mr. Paul M. Reynolds
599 Fifth Avenue
New York City

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

I am enclosing a copy of the Ann Rutledge article for Mr. Chenery.

You told me 4000 words. I have kept it down to that, I think, though it may run over it a little. If it is to be cut, I think I should read it.

I shall be in town until Friday. If you should like to talk over anything with me, I could drop into your office between three and four tomorrow afternoon as I must be in this neighborhood.
You can telephone me in the morning at my apartment if this is convenient. I shall be back next week and we can arrange then to see Mr. Bigelow, if you so advise.

Very sincerely yours
