Dear Miss Tarbell:

You should not have tried to write me about the exercises at Wattsburg. We are all anxious to have you get well and do not want you to tire yourself by writing letters.

It may not be possible to visit you at Bethel this summer, but I hope you will be feeling much better in the fall and that you and I can have another pleasant afternoon talking about honorary degrees.

You may be sure that I shall bring a complete report of the interesting exercises at Wattsburgh.

Mrs. Tolley joins me in affectionate regards.

Sincerely yours,

William P. Tolley
