Baltimore Convention

C.E.H. cut against McClure's statement that L. was opposed to H. in nickel. Only support for view = McC., Dana, Burr & Watts. Insufficient. Burton Cooke Wickey, Swett etc deny L. wanted old ticket to stand. C.E.H. calls attention to fact that McC. says in one of his letters to Wickey: "I saw L. night & day. Was his confident" etc. But at beginning of this book he declares "I do not claim to have been a confidential friend of Mr L."

H. says Burr was thoroughly unreliable.
