My dear Miss Tarbell

The struggle for the possession of absolute power which you find in your work among capitalists & Steffens finds, among millitars, & Baker finds, among labor unions, is the age-long struggle & human freedom has been won only by continual & tremendous effort.
I hope that Baker will get the fundamental concept in his head.

What all three of you want is law-abidingness as opposed to lawlessness.
As a minor item

I want the exact
address of the magazine Cor 23rd St & 4th Ave
put on the cover
