In Re Dunlap

March 3, 1921

Mr. H. S. Latham,
64 Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Latham:

When I passed through town a few days ago I asked my sister to call you up and tell you that I understood perfectly your attitude in regard to Mr. Dunlap's proposition about my proposed book on Women in Industry. You are quite right, of course.

I should like to tell you, too, how he has arrived at the $4000 that he has charged against the production of the book. He is perfectly sincere in his position, but I do not agree with it at all.

I think it might be well for us to talk the matter over as to what is the wisest thing to do. I shall be back in town about the 8th and if you will drop me a note or call me up, in case you care to discuss the matter, I will drop over.

Very sincerely yours,

A Lincoln — The Last of 13 — Ida M. Tarbell — March 1921

Abraham Lincoln — The Last Days — Ida M. Tarbell

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library