

DEBATERS WIN IN MEETS
WITH OBERLIN AND PITTDual Debate With Hamilton on Thursday
Concludes Schedule

Allegheny's negative debating team won from the representatives of Oberlin College, last Tuesday, March 25, at Oberlin, and the affirmative team won also from the University of Pittsburgh at the Stone Church last evening. The question in both cases was, "Resolved: That the United States Should Join the League of Nations."

The defeat of Oberlin, by the negative team composed of Messrs. Wright, Gordon, Leeper, speakers, and Schruers, alternate, was very decisive. The judges returned a unanimous decision. Oberlin's men were: Messrs. Shaw, Newcomb, and Renner. The arguments were of a broad nature dealing with the organization and accomplishments of the League and its relation to the United States. The Oberlin team tried to prove that, of the three possible choices open to the United States, isolation, the conference system, and the League of Nations, we should choose the League as the best possible course. Allegheny developed its case on the following points:

(1) The League is an unsound and unhealthy organization; (2) the League cannot handle the great problems of Europe; (3) the United States can do more good outside the League than in.

Their lack of experience and the

SEVEN MEN ARE PLEDGES
OF PI DELTA EPSILONMEN STUDENTS REMINDED OF LITERARY CONTEST OF JOURNALISM FRATERNITY

Seven Alleghenians are now proudly wearing the silver and green pledge ribbon of Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalistic fraternity. Membership in this honorary fraternity is awarded to those students who have completed two years or its equivalent of work on one or more of the three college publications.

The following men were pledged last Saturday, March 29: John M. Pratt, '25, Kaldron Staff and Feature and Alumni Editor of the Campus; Robert J. McCollum, '25, Associate Editor of the Literary Monthly and Athletic reporter on the Campus; G. Alfred Palmer, '26, Kaldron Staff and Society reporter of the Campus; J. Allison Rupert, '26, Feature reporter of the Campus and Kaldron reporter; Karl Riemer, '26, Athletic reporter on the Kaldron and the Campus; and Edgar C. Dehne, '26, Athletic reporter on the Kaldron and News reporter on the Campus; Howard P. Taylor, '26, Kaldron staff. The time of the initiation will be announced later.

Students are again reminded of the annual literary contest that is sponsored by the Allegheny Chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon. Little interest has been shown towards this matter which was announced in several issues of the Campus. Since the contest closes shortly after the Easter recess, the men students should not delay writing their contributions.

Pi Delta Epsilon was founded at Syracuse University in 1909 and Allegheny chapter was installed in the spring of 1922.

SOCIAL SERVICE SECRETARY
LAUDS VENTURESOMENESS
IN RELIGION

"Venturesomeness in Religion," was the subject of a chapel talk on Thursday morning, March 27, by Dr. A. A. Heist, Field Secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Service.

Dr. Heist opened his lecture with a straightforward definition of religion, saying that real religion is betting one's life that there is a God.

Dr. Heist allied himself with the optimists of the day in his faith in the younger generation. He said that such as the present student open forum meetings and the Indianapolis Volunteer Convention were indications of a better future.

great breadth of their case was largely the cause of the defeat of the Oberlin speakers. Allegheny's team was exceptionally strong in its constructive speeches.

The debate with Pitt was given before the Men's Bible Class of the Stone Church in the Sunday School room of that building. Members of

MEN'S GLEE CLUB GOES ON
CONCERT TOUR NEXT WEEKPROGRAMS TO BE GIVEN IN OIL
CITY AND FRANKLIN ON APRIL 7 AND 8

Following several rehearsals the Men's Glee Club will take its second trip of this year. The trip will be to Franklin and Oil City on April 7 and 8. The concerts, both to be given in high school auditoriums, are being sponsored by the High School Athletic Associations of these cities.

Several new selections are being added to the program for these two concerts. "Hush," presented so effectively last year in pantomime, will again be on the program but will be sung by a quartette instead of by the whole group. Numerous light airs are being prepared for use as encores. To this will be added a piano monologue by C. C. Wolz, and a piano specialty by Wolz and Eaton.

A large four-page program is being printed for the concerts. A cut of Bentley Hall will be on the first page, while the personnel of the organization will appear on the last page. The two inner pages will be reserved for the program of the concerts.

SENIOR HOP TO BE PEAK OF SPRING SOCIAL LIFEGRAF'S ORCHESTRA, TUXES, AND NOVEL DECORATIONS TO FEATURE DANCE

All aboard for the Senior Hop Special leaving Hulings Hall at 7:45 sharp, Friday, April 4. Don't wait until the last minute, you may get left, and if you do, well, we're sorry for you. If one but thinks over the main features of this last all-college dance one will understand the foregoing statement.

The Senior Hop, which looms as the year's most successful dance, will be held in the Armory from eight to twelve on Friday evening, April 4. Graf's orchestra, with the reputation of being among the best, will be on hand to give lightness to the feet and frivolity to the dance.

Twelve dances are listed and no extras. The dress for the dance will be formal, but the ladies are asked not to wear flowers.

NO WALKING ON GRASS IS SLOGAN UNTIL MAYCAMPUS TO BE ROLLED AND TENNIS COURTS PUT IN SHAPE

In accordance with a custom which has prevailed since 1913 students are asked to refrain from walking on the grass of the campus from now until May 1. A strict observance of this request on the part of everyone will give the grass a chance to grow without being torn by the feet of hurrying students.

During the Easter recess the College will have the campus rolled and put into good condition. No new shrubs will be planted. As soon as possible work will be started on the three College tennis courts. The courts at the rear of Hulings Hall are for the use of women students only, while the one by the side of the athletic field is reserved for the men.

SOCIAL SERVICE INCLUDES
THREE TYPES OF WORKMRS. BURNETT, OF TECH, EXPLAINS OPPORTUNITIES IN PROFESSION

Social work as a profession was the subject of a talk given in Chapel last Saturday morning, by Mrs. Burnett, of the Department of Social Service at Carnegie Institute of Technology.

There are three types of social service; work with individuals or families, direction of group activities, and research work. Those who work directly with individuals, help people who are in financial or other difficulty to get straight again. Others supervise groups, such as Boy Scouts, or conduct settlement houses. In this field there is large opportunity in rural districts. A third kind of work deals with investigation and propaganda. People who do not wish to deal with individual cases may compile statistics, do research work, and give information to the public concerning social evils and their remedies.

The demand for social workers far exceeds the supply. Mrs. Burnett emphasized the fact that the profession is open to both men and women. Psychology, economics, sociology, and allied subjects are the basis of training. In addition to this academic preparation, students must be given practical experience in settlement work.

NEW YORK TIMES REVIEWS DOCTORATE
THESIS OF PROF.
RANDOLPH FARIES

Dr. Randolph Faries of the Department of English Literature recently has been recognized by the New York Times in a review of the thesis he prepared for his Ph. D. degree, which he received from the University of Pennsylvania in 1923.

The thesis, "Ancient Rome in the English Novel," presents a masterful study of the so-called "classic novel." The thesis is divided into four parts, starting with a definition of the field, followed by the beginnings of the Roman novel, and the principal lines of development from 1834 to the present day. A conclusion and bibliography complete the work.

Several copies of the thesis are now in the seminar rooms of the Library for those who wish to make use of them.

JUNIORS WIN IN ANNUAL
INTERCLASS INDOOR MEETTWO RECORDS BROKEN AND ONE
TIED—EVENTS ARE CLOSELY CONTESTED

Two indoor records were broken and one was tied in the annual interclass meet which was held in the gymnasium Saturday afternoon. The Juniors won the meet by scoring 49 points, the Freshmen were second, with 33, while the Sophomores and Seniors finished a poor third and fourth respectively.

The first record to be shattered was in the 880 yard run. John Rea, a freshman defeated Bliss by a narrow margin and in so doing he chalked up a mark of 2 minutes and 2 2-5 seconds. This is 2-5 of a second lower than the previous record of Wimmer.

Drake's potato race time of 26 seconds was clipped down by Max Tornatore, a freshman who finished a fifth of a second better than the former record. Incidentally, the mark made by Drake has not been touched in a period covering six or seven years.

Judd equalled the spring-board high jump record when he cleared the bar at 7 feet, 2 inches. This equals the height made by McKay in 1915.

All of the events were closely contested and some excellent competition was brought out. Reyer sprung a surprise when he defeated Bliss in the two mile. Williams was responsible for another upset when he copied the 85 yard dash, defeating Nelson and Seginak. Wright scored the

"BLANCHETTE" IN MAYCAST CONCENTRATES ON DRAMA
UNDER COACHING OF
DR. J. L. RUSSO

Blanchette, the French play which is being studied in the various French classes, will be presented this year as the annual dramatic performance of Le Petit Salon.

The members of the cast are: Mademoiselle Blanchette, leading lady, Frances Anderson; Madame Rousset, her mother, Helen J. Bowman; Lucie Galoux, Blanchette's chum, Eleanor Van Scoten; Madame Jules, an old servant, Jeanette McKee; Monsieur Rousset, father of Blanchette, George Bowers; Le Cantonnier, a funny old street cleaner, William Reichert; Monsieur Morillon, a poor peasant, Charles Hammett; Auguste Morillon, his son and suitor for the hand of Blanchette, John Pratt; Monsieur Galoux, a rich, elderly man, Boyd Miller; Georges Galoux, his son and a care-free fellow, Alexander Hill; Un Voiturier, a teamster, Nellis Fisher. Le Facteur, the postman, Edwin Schruers; and several non-speaking parts, the characters being merely inmates at the tavern. The cast is progressing nicely. They have the first act pretty well in hand and are now stressing in practice the last two. Professor Russo is coaching the play. To him will belong most of the credit for the success of the drama. He hopes to be able to present it soon after the Easter vacation.

The College will take orders now for the new Allegheny Song Books so that they may be distributed without inconvenience as soon as they are off the press.

The books will cost $1.50. This is the lowest possible price at which the College can offer the collection of songs. The first order has already been sent in for 1000 copies. Orders for the book will be taken from now until Commencement week, at which time they will be sold at a convenient place in Bentley Hall. Orders by the Alumni can be sent in on the blank printed in this issue of the Campus.

ALLEGHENY TO ORGANIZE
REPUBLICAN PARTY CLUBSenator Frank P. Miller and Alice M. Bentley
to Speak April 9

With a mass meeting for all students on Wednesday night, April 9, at which Senator Frank P. Miller and Alice M. Bentley are invited to speak, the Allegheny College Republican Club will be definitely organized.

The club will be one of the hundred or more formed in colleges and universities throughout the country and will be directly affiliated with the Republican National Committee at Washington.

OXFORD CLUB OF AMERICA
TO INSTALL CHAPTER HERETHOBURN CLUB RECEIVES CHARTER
FROM NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

On March 28, the Thoburn Club of Allegheny College was granted a charter of the Oxford Club of America, a national professional fraternity of clergymen. The chapter will be installed on April 9, and the club will hereafter be known as the Thoburn Chapter of the Oxford Club of America.

Following the plan of a similar organization known as the Oxford Club of England, a group of students at Northwestern University called to gether at Chicago in 1919 representatives of the religious clubs of nine colleges and universities in their section. The principles and the plan of organization which they presented to this group were favorable to all, and these nine clubs together with the one at the Northwestern University, heartily united to form the organization known as the Oxford Club of America. Since that time the Club has expanded and it now has, in addition to the original ten charter chapters, seven new chapters. Although essentially a Methodist organization it is not necessarily so as one-third of the clubs are of other denominations. The Oxford Club of America has a national organization and its official publication is the "Oxford Journal."

The chapter secured by the Thoburn Club is the first one to be granted in Pennsylvania. They petitioned the Oxford Club of America about a year ago.

The officers of the Club are: President Harry D. Hummer; Vice President, Robert W. Leeper; Treasurer, Lee Schaeffer; and Secretary R. O. Barber. The other members are: Charles L. Cusick, Frank W. Mason, Edward D. Staples, Virgil A. Chilcote, Thomas H. Mackintosh, Charles W. Havice, William M. Babcock, C. F. Graham, Carl Stewart, Clarence F. Avey, George Fallon, H. E. Garland, Richard Harvey, Alvin Jones, William McClurg, and Gary Roush. Dr. I. R. Beiler is an honorary member.

NEW RULES ARE ADOPTED
FOR CASES OF CHEATINGLOSS OF CREDIT FOR COURSE
AND INDEFINITE SUSPENSION ARE PENALTIES

At a meeting of the whole student body, held immediately after chapel last Saturday morning, Mr. Chase R. Gage, President of the Men's Senate, read the following rules in regard to cheating which were passed recently by the Faculty.

Cheating in a quiz or examination: (1) Freshmen, first offense: zero for the course, with warning, probation for one term, or to the end of the current term.

(2) Freshmen, second offense, Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors, first offense: indefinite suspension from College.

Notes or laboratory books believed by the Department to have been secured illegitimately: zero for the course.

No distinction is to be made between receiving and giving help, but the Delinquencies Committee is given authority to make modification of action in exceptional cases of giving help.

These rules are essentially the same as those which were in force under the honor system.

The outstanding purpose of the club is to encourage active interest in current national affairs, but attention will also be given to the firm establishment in the mind of the student of the basic principles of the Republican party. In many institutions the club has shown a serious interest in the American political situation of today, and students have come to the realization that they must be fitted to take up the duties of the citizenry of which they are soon to be a part.

The Republican National Committee cooperates with the college clubs by sending them speakers of national recognition. While the speaking schedule has not been completed as yet for Allegheny, it is assured that some prominent men will be brought here.

The local Executive Committee, as appointed by the National Committee, consists of Ralph A. Clark, John J. Fries, Chase R. Gage, Charles W. Havice, Hubert P. Morley, Lawrence H. Nunn, and M. Victor Wright. Mr. J. W. Hayes, of Washington, an Assistant Director of the College Bureau, paid a visit to the College last week to give preliminary instructions to the local committee.

WOMEN ENTERTAIN AT
INTER-SORORITY DANCEDECORATIONS, MUSIC, AND PUNCH, ADD TO ENJOYMENT OF EVENT

Leap year was fittingly celebrated at Allegheny last Friday evening, March 28, when the fraternity girls gave an informal dance at the State Armory. Over one hundred couples were present. As this was the first dance given by the girls of the College in recent years, the event was greatly enjoyed.

College and Fraternity banners and multi-colored streamers were used in decorating the floor. Favors of bright tinted caps and large quantities of confetti and serpentine added much to the life of the party. An apparently inexhaustible supply of punch flowed freely throughout the evening and was welcomed by the dancers on account of the excessive heat.

Music was furnished by the Red and Black orchestra of Erie.

The patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. Fred W. Hixson, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Church, and Dean Alice H. Spalding.

The committee included Miss Charlotte Johnson, chairman and the Misses Harriett Brydell, Elizabeth Arnold, Eleanor Barnhurst, Naomi Reischer, Edith Briggs and Ruth Jones.

PITTSBURGH ALUMNI
MEET FOR BANQUET

The Pittsburgh Alumni Association held its annual Dinner at the University Club on Thursday evening, March 20. Over seventy-five alumni attended the dinner, manifesting much interest in the progress of the College.

Dr. Edward B. Heckel, '87, was toastmaster. Mr. James A. Wakefield spoke on "Watchman, What of the Night?" Following this speech, Mr. Frank A. Arter, '64, related some fascinating reminiscences. An address by Mr. Arthur W. Thompson, President of the Board of Trustees, and one by President Fred W. Hixson concluded the program.

Officers elected for the coming year are: President, Frank R. Frost, '05; Vice-President, Mrs. Hazel Emery Evans, '18; Secretary-Treasurer, Harold K. Brooks, '15.

EVOLUTION NOT REVOLUTION

There is a Youth Movement. There is a spirit of dissatisfaction in the younger generation over the failure of the older regime to solve the problems of the day. The movement is particularly strong on college and university campuses. Students are holding forums, publishing such fearless magazines as the "Student Challenge" and the "World Tomorrow," and having conventions.

The spirit of the movement has grown to such an extent that attempted repression will only encourage its growth. If there are agencies which would see it abolished, either they are wise enough to ignore it, or they are voicing protests which cannot be heard. At any rate, the movement is going forward steadily.

Why should it be repressed? Certainly it cannot bring about much more tragic results than those suffered in the last decade. The attitude in favor of pacifism to be found among many students today may be treason, but treason of such a nature can scarcely be worse for the Government than the present scandal down in Washington. The greatest danger of the Youth Movement is that it may discountenance everything old because it is old and that it may adopt anything new because it is new. But such procedure would be unworthy of the very spirit of the movement. Its true followers do not want revolution; they want evolution. They want to see a better world evolve from the present tangle through the leadership of those who are to live in the world during the coming generation, the youth of today.

POLITICS AND CAMPUS LIFE

Campus life cannot afford to isolate itself from the affairs of our country when citizenship involves the responsibility that it does today. The political situation of the United States is too important to be treated lightly. One of the parties is fostering a club at Allegheny and will bring speakers here to present one side of the question. This is a good thing for the College. It will awaken a more active interest in our Government. Some students will not agree with the issues as they are presented. It would be unfortunate if all students did agree. The partisan element in such clubs is of little importance, after all. Their chief value is that they will encourage the students to investigate American politics, and this investigation will effect, in turn, more intelligent participation in the affairs of our Republic.

WILLIAM McCLURG COMPARES BASKET BALL WITH LIFE

ELECTION OF Y. M. C. A. CABINET TO BE HELD TOMORROW NIGHT

How the principles of basketball can be applied to life was shown by William McClurg, at the Y. M. C. A. meeting held in Cochran Hall last Wednesday evening.

The two forwards are on the offensive, ready to make as many field goals as possible. The first forward in life is ambition in life. The forward's business is to put the ball into the basket, and all opportunities to do this are readily seized. One should have a goal toward which his energies and his thought should be directed.

The second forward in life is determination. Grit, fight, and determination are synonymous in winning the victory. "Playing to the grandstand" has no place. The center is the pivot man who presents character, since everything revolves around character. One of the guards is truth, a vital virtue of life. Truth often guides us from the paths of wrong doing and enlightens us in reaching forward to greater things in life. The other guard is faith. We should have confidence in ourselves.

ALLEGHENIANS PARTICIPATE IN CHORAL SOCIETY PROGRAM

Before a meager audience occasioned by the inclement weather, the Meadville Choral Society presented its Spring Concert of popular songs in the high school auditorium on Thursday evening, March 27.

Walker Kinkaid accompanied on the piano for the concert and entertained with a piano solo. The program was composed of popular music and lighter airs in contrast to the heavier oratorio which was presented in the fall. The society is composed of about one hundred men and women, with Prof. Lee Hess Barnes as director. Several college students are also enrolled.

ANTICS OF OBADIAH CAUSE ANXIETY FOR HIS FRIENDS

PET OF BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT AWAKES FROM LONG HIBERNATION

Obadiah has once more taken up his residence in the cellar of Alden Hall following his winter sleep under one of the adjoining houses. Those who saw him as a baby on the campus last year would hardly recognize him now, for he has more than quadrupled in size and now claims to have reached his majority. From some of his antics about the Hall, however, students are beginning to doubt the validity of that statement. One of his favorite tricks is escaping through the cellar window screen and scampering about the lawn and vicinity much to the distress and vexation of his watchers.

Obadiah is only one of the large family of animals that are housed in the cellar rooms of Alden Hall. This group had a surprise the other day in the arrival of a large family of white mice which will be used when older in bacteriological tests. Several guinea pigs are also included in the family, as well as numerous rabbits. These animals are used for obtaining anti-human amboceptor. This is a reagent used by advanced students in the Wasserman blood test.

Jeremiah and Jezebel, two alligators, are among the recent acquisitions of the department. Both have been sent North from Florida, and will be company for the turtles and other biological specimens in the laboratory.

New Books on Our Shelf

Robert Frost's "New Hampshire" is a popular book of poems among Alleghenians as a result of the author's recent visit here. It is the latest production of Frost, and in addition to his poem, "New Hampshire" contains "Notes" and "Grace Notes," longer and shorter pieces. The wood-cuts lend a particularly artistic tone to the volume. As in the case of his other books, Henry Holt and Company of New York are the publishers.

A somewhat technical but very forward book is "A Modern College and a Modern School" by Dr. Abraham Flexner. The author presents a constructive program which purposes to modernize education. There are two papers included: one dealing with the college problem and the other with the school.

Dr. Flexner declares there are three kinds of careers open to college graduates: scholarship, a profession, or business. He deals with these careers as related to a college education in a far-seeing way. In all, the book offers illumination to those who are interested in the welfare of our educational system. The book may be procured for one dollar from Doubleday, Page, and Company, Garden City, New York.

Campus Filings

The Overseas Club announced its intention to erect an open air theater on the campus, to be located in the lower part of the ravine. Plans were also presented for the replacement of the old Rustic Bridge by a new stone structure. Both projects were to be memorials to the Allegheny men who fought in the late war.

Dr. Crawford, on the eve of his retirement from the office of President of the College, presented a valuable collection of five hundred volumes, and two hundred and seventy-five photographs, to the College Library. The basketball season closed with a record of six victories and eight defeats for the varsity.

A six page issue of the Campus was devoted to a review of the basketball season just closed. Pictures of the players and a complete resume of all the games were features. The team won eleven victories out of twelve games played and won the championship of Western Pennsylvania. A total of 509 points were scored against 282 for all opponents. In the ten years ending in 1916, Allegheny lost only ten games out of fifty-seven, only two of which were lost on the home floor.

The annual Philo-Franklin Oratorical Contest was won by J. G. Castle, '18, with J. G. Regester, '18, second. The contest was conducted in the Chapel until the middle of the third speech when the lights went out. The meeting adjourned to Bentley Hall.

"The Comedy of Errors" was successfully presented in the Academy of Music by Duzer Du. Bim Thomas was one of the leading characters.

1906.

John L. Sullivan, former heavyweight champion of the world, wrote a letter to the sporting editor of the Campus saying that he expected to be in Meadville soon on a vaudeville tour and offering a reward of $1000 to anyone in his weight whom he could not stop in four rounds.

Allegheny defeated Oberlin on the home floor for the fifth time in six years. The score was 17 to 7.

Westminster cancelled her game with Allegheny because of the latter's charge that several professionals were to take part in the contest for Westminster.

June, 1891.

At an early hour Saturday morning the "Boys in Blue" were awake and making preparations to go to Camp Alden on the shores of Conneaut Lake. At 8 o'clock the battalion formed in front of Hulings Hall, a few minutes later the command "Forward march" was given and amid shouts of "Allegheny," the waving of handkerchiefs, and the strains of martial music, the gallant "defenders of the flag" marched down the Hill to the train, waiting to bear them to their destination.

The night of May 26 is one long to be remembered by many of the Sophomores. It was the night of the Theta Epsilon Initiation. At the quiet hour of midnight this band of noble, (?) men swept down upon the peaceful village of Cochran and proceeded to "do" the signs and umbrellas left out and other available property in green and black and by their yells caused the hair of many to turn white. An adjournment was made to the Shafer house to partake of a sumptuous banquet prepared by the proprietor.

THE CIRCLE OF PINES

The class of 1873 planted the Circle of Pines between what is now Ford Memorial Chapel and the Observatory. For each of the fifteen members, a tree was planted, and the circle remained complete until recent years when these memorials of nature gradually began to die. According to tradition, when death began to thin out the ranks of that memorable class of '73, a similar loss occurred among the pines. About half of the members of that class are now living, and five of the pine trees are still standing, representing the broken group.

CLASSICAL CLUB ENTERTAINS

Members of the History and Political Science Club were guests of the Classical Club at a meeting held last Tuesday night in Cochran Hall. The meeting was well attended by members of both clubs, and a number of the faculty, including President Fred W. Hixson, were present.

Harry Hummer read an enlightening paper on the subject of the evening, "The Untrustworthiness of Historical Sources." Mr. Hummer based his paper on a book by Jerome entitled "Some Aspects of Roman History."

Dr. C. F. Ross and Dr. W. A. Elliott gave illuminating contributions to the informal discussion which followed. Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

LE PETIT SALON

The first act of "Blanchette," the French play, was given as the program at the meeting of Le Petit Salon last Monday afternoon at the Alpha Chi Rho house. The act of course still lacks a little polish, but the various characters played their parts well. If the finished product may be judged from this preliminary presentation, it will be an excellent spectacle. At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

THOBURN CLUB

"Modernism and Fundamentalism" were discussed at the meeting of the Thoburn Club last Thursday evening in Cochran Hall. Robert W. Leeper gave the talk on "Modernism," and Harry D. Hummer spoke on "Fundamentalism." A spirited and enlightening general discussion followed which lasted for two hours.

GIRLS' GYM CLASSES GIVE EXHIBITION

On Thursday afternoon, March 27, the Girls' Gymnasium classes, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Ling, gave an exhibition of dancing and gymnastics in the gymnasium of Hulings Hall before a large audience of parents, friends, and faculty ladies. Multi-colored costumes, scarfs, and balloons lent much attractiveness to the dances, while the illustrative corrective exercises were instructively presented.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Edith Lewis and Miss Maryette Gleason, of Chautauqua, N. Y., visited Hazel Gleason over the week-end.

Week-end guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon this week included Owen Cornell and Harry Miller, of Erie; and J. P. Meyers, of the Hanover Shoe Company. James Isherwood, '20, Fred Horiff, Robert Yoders, John Yoders and J. E. Yoders, all of Waynesburg, were visitors on Friday.

The Freshmen of Alpha Gamma Delta entertained the mothers and alumnae of the Chapter at tea in the fraternity rooms on Saturday afternoon, March 23.

Among the guests of Alpha Chi Rho during the past week were T. B. Horne, '22, of Emlenton; S. E. Davies, ex '23, of Oil City; Paulin Forest, of Erie; T. E. Greenlund, '23, of Warren; D. R. Ingraham, '24; and Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Black, of Erie. Dr. W. A. Elliott was a dinner guest on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jones, and the Misses Gertrude Thomas, Naomi Reischer, Olive Baum, and Marion Blake were Sunday dinner guests at the Phi Gamma Delta house. Mr. Lloyd Bricker, of Westminster College, was also a week-end guest.

During the week-end Delta Tau Delta entertained Kid Chicago, light heavyweight champion of New Zealand, and his manager L. M. McClelland; G. Gauve and G. R. Wilson, both of Rochester; and W. Arnold, of Pittsburgh.

Miss Cornelia Eddy, of Oil City, a student of Goucher College, visited Alice Dorworth last week.

Miss Ravenna Loche, of Erie, was the guest of Dorothy Reed over the week-end.

Mr. A. D. P. Miller, '12, and Mrs. Miller of Pittsburgh; and John Bozic, '23, were dinner guests at the Phi Delta Theta house on Sunday.

Mrs. John Mellor and Miss Mary McAllister, of Rochester, Pa., visited Mary Belle Mellor over the week-end. Mrs. W. R. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Van Scoten, of Bellevue, visited Mary Louise Murphy and Elinor Van Scoten over the week-end.

Mr. Robert Kelley, '23, and Emro Gergely, '23, were week-end visitors at the Beta Upsilon house. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. D. Braun, Mr. William Reichert of Erie, were also dinner guests on Sunday.

FACULTY NOTES

Professor H. W. Gilmer has moved to Park Avenue during the past week.

Professor C. W. Skinner went to Erie as a judge of the varsity debate between Colgate and Ohio Wesleyan at the Academy High School last Friday evening.

Dr. R. E. Lee spoke at the National Convention of Rotarians held in Pittsburgh. He addressed the gathering on Thursday afternoon, and told what the Meadville club is doing for the physical and vocational welfare of boys of this city.

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Doris Peterson was the leader at the Y. W. C. A. meeting last Sunday evening in Hulings Hall. A brief talk was given on the colleges of India by Mary Alice Jackson. Miss Richards, who has been a missionary in India, also told something of the elaborate Easter services in that country, since that day is one of the most sacred of the year to the Hindus. Next Sunday evening a pageant will be given by the Y. W. in the gymnasium of the Hall.

YOUNG WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Mrs. Arthur S. Emig spoke on the Passion Play of Oberammergau at the young women's Bible class last Sunday morning. She will continue the presentation next Sunday morning. Mrs. Emig is well able to talk on this appropriate subject for the Lenten season, since Professor and Mrs. Emig visited Oberammergau on their European tour.

Alumni

A forceful plea to the business men of America to dedicate a part of their lives to the unselfish service of their country, in peace as in war, was the keynote of an article written by special invitation for Forbes, leading business magazine, by State Senator Frank P. Miller, '07. Mr. Miller contends that it is the duty of honest business men to assume a reasonable share of public responsibility. "It would make the business men of America a great, intelligent body of patriotic citizens ready to be drafted at any time, and often to volunteer. In the service of everybody's business, of the greatest business in the world—the business of running the United States of America."

The reports of the recent Convention of the National Educational Association which appeared in the University of Chicago Magazine and the Zeta News, the official publication of Zeta Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, were written for those magazines by Dr. Frederick S. Breed, '98, Assistant Professor of Education at the University of Chicago.

Mr. A. A. Culbertson, '01, of Erie, who has been ill with bronchitis for some time, is now recovering.

The members of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity residing in the vicinity of Erie held a dinner at the University Club on March 11, Mr. G. O. Walt, '98, presiding. About twenty men were present and they formed a permanent organization looking toward encouraging High School boys to enter college.

Mr. Sidney H. Carlson, '22, who is in charge of the Department of Science at the Silver Creek, N. Y., High School, is also choir director at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Fredonia, N. Y., of which the Rev. Samuel L. Maxwell, '10, is the pastor. The choir under his direction has been putting on a series of monthly musicals which have been very popular in Fredonia. He has also sung from the WGK broadcasting station at the New Statler Hotel in Buffalo several times, and he expects to sing again at that station some time in May. Mr. Carlson is much interested in the proposed banquet for all Alleghenians residing in the vicinity of Fredonia which is to be held at the White Inn at Fredonia in the latter part of April.

Miss Doris Gamble, '20, is now living at 69 Durham Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Charles Willis Proctor, '85, of Buffalo, N. Y., spent December in Miami, Florida, with his son, Heath, and daughter, Ruth Proctor Tracy, ex '10. Dr. Alice Heath Proctor, '84, is spending February and March in Miami with her children.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Nodine, 315 N. Washington St., Titusville, Pa., announce the birth of a son, John Hazen Nodine, on March 3. Mrs. Nodine was Miss Mildred Hazen, '17.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bright, both of '15, have changed their address to 231 Jefferson Street, Ravenna, Ohio.

DR. MARLATT

The Rev. Dr. J. L. Marlatt, '82, District Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Tacoma, Washington, recently celebrated the forty-first anniversary of his admission into the St. Louis Conference of the Methodist Church. His first church was the Ironton circuit which consisted of twenty-six preaching places which he had to visit at least once a month. The circuit was three hundred miles long and Dr. Marlatt made his trips on foot for nearly three months. In speaking of his experiences, he said, "The first eight months netted me $286.16 for my toil, with meals thrown in. And such meals! Corn bread, fat pork, chicken, venison, pies, honey, milk with the cream all on it, cake, jellies, and white bread, sometimes. And there was no lack of it. One place gave me fifty cents the first year and the next a cake of maple sugar made in a tea cup. It was fine that they could be so sweet about my preaching."

Dr. Marlatt was soon transferred to St. Louis, and he has ever since served the city churches and has been active in educational circles.

R. Weyand, have signified their intention of entering the tournament. Others who desire to participate must communicate with C. E. Hammett or R. W. Pratt before the beginning of the Spring Recess.

DUAL DEBATE WITH HAMILTON

The College Men's Bible Class were also present for the support and debate.

The decision for this debate was rendered in a novel manner. Before the debate the audience voted in favor of or against the League, and after the contest they voted on the merits of the speeches and their presentation. This was the first attempt made by Allegheny to use decisions of this kind.

Allegheny's team was composed of Messrs. Hammett, Sutton, Demmler, speakers, and Bartlett, alternate. Pitt's speakers were Messrs. Schlopp, Mierling, and Rosenberg.

Thursday, April 3, Allegheny will conclude her debating season by meeting two teams from Hamilton College. The affirmative team will debate in the Ford Memorial Chapel, and the negative team will journey to Clinton. The teams will use the season's question, that of the League.

The Allegheny swimming team defeated Thiel in the College tank Saturday afternoon by a score of 49 to 10. Captain Wright's natators took every first but one, as well as most of the second places. The only event that Thiel won was the fancy diving, in which Petty of Thiel nosed out Slocum by one point.

Wright and Hill were the stars of the meet. The former captured three firsts for a total of 15 points, while Hill was close behind with one first and three seconds, netting him 14 points in all. A fair-sized crowd was present.

Mackintosh ran true to form in the mile run but although he won it, he narrowly escaped a trimming as Reyner, his opponent, harassed him all the way. DISCUSSES PROBLEM
OF SOCIAL HISTORY

DR. H. H. HOUGH WILL ADDRESS
MEN'S BIBLE CLASS NEXT SUNDAY

"How to Solve Jesus' Attitude Toward War from a Scientific Standpoint," was the topic which held the attention of the College Men's Bible Class last Sunday at the Stone Church.

Dr. Littell illustrated the way in which society had evolved from its lower forms, and the way in which this process of evolution is still continuing. Mankind was first grouped into families; next it collected into small groups termed clans; following this came the larger groups called tribes; then came the feudal bands; subsequently in the upward trend these feudal groups merged into national states.

These developments, especially that from feudalism to nationalism, came through the influence of the Christian Church. This was accomplished because the Church showed that brotherly love was a better way to settle disputes than the continual use of arms.

Reed's team still leads in the attendance contest, the score being, Reed 208, Nunn 186.

Dr. H. H. Hough will speak to the class next Sunday.

TRINITY COLLEGE INSISTS HAZ-ING LOWERS SCHOLARSHIP

A committee appointed to investigate the reasons for low scholarship at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., put the blame on the hazing custom. Forty-five per cent of the freshmen class flunked in last month's examinations. The committee said that the hazing parties at all hours of the night prevented the men from getting the proper amount of sleep necessary to pursue their studies to advantage. As a result of this report, the student body has voted to ban further hazing of freshmen. This action is comparable to the action by the present freshman class. It is gratifying to know that Allegheny is one of the leaders in this movement. In the future hazing of freshmen will be limited to the first few weeks of the college year.

HARVARD MAKES FURTHER EN-TRANCE LIMITATIONS

The announcement that Harvard will tighten its entrance requirements and limit its enrollment is just one more example of the present trend in all the larger eastern universities. The old idea that a college must keep its doors open to everyone who could possibly be squeezed in, has given way to the fact that a contemporary college must either restrict its number of students or else accept a deterioration in its standards. The colleges and universities are, one by one, claiming the right to weed out applicants and retain only those who, they feel, are best fitted for college work.

ALTOGETHER TOO MANY

If one really stops to think of life he will realize that there are too many of many things. There are too many laws; too many divorces; too many cases in the courts; too many scandals in high and low life; too many immigrants coming to the United States; too many children for the schools to accommodate; too many people with too many dollars and too many with too few; too many automobile accidents; too many murders; too many robberies; too many men doing too many useless jobs; too many soldiers in Europe; too many fellows in our colleges that ought not to be there and too many not in our colleges who ought to be there; too many high ideals that fail; too many low ideals that come out on top. We seem to be living in an age of "too many," and there are too many people who do not care.—New York Evening Post.

DRIVERLESS FORD TAKES WILD
DASH DOWN NORTH MAIN STREET

Who said Fords don't drive themselves now-a-days? They do; at least that is what one would have surmised were he to have witnessed H. S. Wasser's Ford casually meandering its way unaided down North Main Street last Wednesday night.

Wasser had parked his "lizzie" and entered the library. He returned presently to find his car among the missing. The ensuing search ended near the bottom of the Hill. The remains were untangled from the rear of a Buick machine into which the Ford had plunged at the end of its wild careening flight down the hill.

The entire rear of the Buick was demolished while the radiator, lights, fenders, and front springs of the Ford were completely wrecked.
