Dear Mr. Goodell:

The Cosmopolitan is beginning that series I talked to you about in December. The Naumkeag paper will appear in January and the Art Department of the magazine wants pictures of the plant. It has occured to me that you might have taken pictures inside of your group in consultation or perhaps working with an operative at the machine. If so, could you quickly get pictures for me?

I think they are telephoning to J. Foster Smith for views of the factory, but he might not see the advisibility of humanizing as much as possible.

I still have certain material of yours which I should like to hold if you are not in a hurry for it until after this article is in pages.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Frances Goodell
