April 13, 1926

My dear Miss Tarbel:-

On my way down to my office this afternoon I bought a copy of"McCalls" containing your first contribution to the public on Florida and I am sure that both Mrs. Bonar and I will get much pleasure from reading it.

To your letter of"apology" I wrote you at some length in care of the Hotel McAllister,Miami,Fla in order that your conscience might not accuse you nor give you any anxiety.

Both Mrs. Bonar and I are quite well, and we join in love and good wishes to you.

Sincerely yours,

L. J. Bonar
