Dec. 15, 1941

Dear Iris,

Sometime ago you wrote me that Miss Rowley had taken over that picture that you like, the one where I am sitting under the tree, and I told you if she did not return it I'd send you another. I have been able to get another, and if you still want it just drop me a card with a "Yes" on it and I'll have it there for Christmas Day.

I hope you are all celebrating the Day. That's what we are fighting for. It would be a lack of faith to let it go unheralded-don't you think?

Affectionately,

Ida
