July 14, 1924

Hon. Herbert Hoover,
Secretary of Commerce,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I want very much to have about a half an hour's talk with you - something which it seems to me you ought to know, though possibly on the hearing you may not think so. At least I feel that it is something that I ought to put before you.

Could you seeme any time of the afternoon of July 23? I am expecting to go to Washington the morning of that day.

Hoping I am not imposing upon your good will in making this request, believe me

Faithfully yours,
