Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East Nineteenth Street
New York, New York

My dear Miss Tarbell:

You will please find enclosed several copies of Lincoln Lore No. 327, "Lincoln's Manual for Lawyers."

This is one of a series of collections of Lincoln's quotations which I have been arranging and it will probably be printed separately such as the other two enclosures which I make.

My thought is to make a rather exhaustive study of Lincoln's timely sayings and assemble them under various subject heads treated very much in the way as Lincoln Lore No. 327.

You will be very much interested to know that I am starting this next Saturday for a trip into North Carolina and Virginia which I hope may result in the establishment of the maternal line of Abraham Lincoln through his Shipley ancestors.

From time to time I see contributions from your pen and I am pleased to note that you still have a keen interest in all that refers to Abraham Lincoln.

Very truly yours,

Louis A Warren
