Oct 14, 1911

178 East Sixty-fourth Street.

Dear Miss Tarbell

I bought the Book of Woman's Power so as to read the whole of your introduction. I found a place apt in the Evening Post.

What you say is just what I think, and of course that is the highest praise I can give, but I would like to add my grateful thanks to you for saying it.

Yours sincerely

Edward S. Martin

Mrs Schreiner's book is interesting & valuable, but I think she exaggerates woman's predicament.

I am coming down to rego-

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

ciate with you & some less a dinner & bestow
the privilege of your acquaintance on my family. Have long had it in mind to do that but the hurry of life has interfered.

Yrs