Dear Ida:

What is the status of the magnum opus? I can see that the gentle Sites is being prodded by the Judge. This strictly in confidence.

Is the first installment ready for S. S. and when shall you be able to show more finished manuscript to the Judge?

Don't betray me and let him realize that I have written you frankly of his impatience to see more of his precious story.

How are you? Let me know some afternoon when you are to be up town and can join me for tea.

Yours always,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
