My Dear
Felicitations and greetings now that you have passed another mile stone, no doubt you realize how fleeting the years are, as we leave one more behind. Again I must congratulate you my dear friends on the triumph but dear Miss Tarbell what you accomplished is of your own industry and hard work & application & we conclude of the two you have really done greater things than Mr Gibson.

Your copy at last on the is highly prized as you have inscribed it for us & it one of our many volumes that is not to be loaned An Amusing incident happened about it. A friend whose slogan in life is to never buy anything that can be borrowed, who very intimate in your book, as he said every man down town was talking about it & asked if we had it & then said he would like to get it" so I quickly assumed I'd be very happy to see that it was at his Wall St office in a few days, & then I enfix my dear with that a block I must & ordered the book sent to him C.O.D. Now you know what I think his initials have stood for, forgive T. W. (Tight Wad)". Have been trying to think of some thing that would stimulate our beloved Bo B & must to talk with you soon about it.

With love & gratitude for you existing to the World & so much of yourself
