Student Govt-

Barnards self-govt -- complicated -- Undergraduate assn. which ~~is a~~ includes all u-g. activities - no organization can be formed independently of it - new enterprise must have approval - and self. w Assembly & carry on all financial operations through u-g assn. treasurer. Sees banks for everything - publications etc -

Weekly Assembly of 54 - including all [illegible] presidents of in college activities - 240 out of ab 1000 students - new majority in freshman class officers get experience in class govt - 12 freshmen in Assembly - 2 officers & 4 representatives - Ref. of activities in Assembly - general apathy - upper class over-domination

Much impressed by the succeed-description of system given by Miss Prest. of N.Y. Assoc. — & Miss Caldwell (?) of Stanford Comm. — These girls get a training in complicated ~~Co~~ organization — also training in [illegible] with family — much in Bs case is not [illegible] merely in personal organization [illegible] [illegible] co-operation — fair — counsel of dwelling — Miss A — 2 ways ideal — living in N.Y. city — where there is a number of cases in which they ~~[illegible]~~ do not take students or themselves so seriously giving among big things — limited that fashion of self [illegible] at Vassar and its faculty ~~so~~ desire to impose itself + greatness of [illegible] Their restraint to attempt — or [illegible] part to listen to cases assumption of complete [illegible] in part of president of Dormitory presid - feel their impotence" & she had said to me earlier of this same girl & 2 understood their doing her in action - not feeling conscious of faculty's final authority -

This experience ~~as~~ ~~ca~~ supplements many tests set for s. govt. - plea for adequate training for community & national membership - understanding of how to deal with different nations & races to be effected - methods of dealing with them.

Are we giving ourselves a not - truth of they are not confusing idea of freedom from faculty as the giving ability of self govt. by abusing public opinion

Indirectly –

Old saying – impossible to sweep a room without raising a dust
