My dear Mr. O'Brien:

Through some mistake the answer which I dictated to your letter of October 23rd, which reached me just as I was leaving Boston week before last, was not sent out. You will forgive it, will you not?

I was much interested in what you told me of your work and in the clippings. I am glad to know that you feel so strongly about Mr. Young. The judgment of people generally is that he is a mighty interesting public servant.

Thanking you again for your letter, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mr. William H. O'Brien

Dear Elwood:

I have your letter of September 25th.

I shall be very glad to be of any assistance I can to Miss Tarbell in the work that she is doing. My time the first part of this week is full, and I have got to go north the latter part of the week for several days. I think I could arrange to give her some time on Thursday afternoon, October 8th, beginning at two o'clock, or on Friday morning October 9th, beginning at ten o'clock, if she will let me know if either of these days will suit her.

Yours very truly,

Thomas N. Perkins
