215 Forest Hills Street
Forest Hills.
Boston
January 24th 1913.

Miss Ida Tarbell

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

Your "Good Will & Women" in the American Magazine for December, with its sympathetic interpretation of that splendid Bedford Work, has given me such a sense of kinship with your view point, that I would very much like to have you get just a glimpse of the work for Girl-Mothers, which has so largely claimed my heart for nearly five years.

I am sending you some Reports and other literature which will give you an idea of the Spirit of our Home and Hospital and of what we are doing for the girls.

Ever since reading your article and having this new sense of acquaintance with you, I have wondered whether it might be possible to induce you to be the Speaker at our next Annual Meeting in the latter part of March. We are always seeking for a voice which will interpret the work deeply and truly and win the people to understand and help.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library

Our meeting is held in some one of the first Boston Churches, sometimes on Sunday evening sometimes on a week evening.

The arrangements are very elastic, and if you could consider coming, I am sure we could meet your convenience. In replying kindly let me know your terms.

I wish you might see the new Home and Hospital into which we have lately removed our work; with picturesque natural surroundings, and ample balconies for patients and babies and especially one wonderful painting which I know must appeal to you, done for the Home by an Artist of rare spirit whose pictures are heavenly visions of the sacredness of Motherhood and other things deep and high.

When you come to Boston please give me the privilege of showing it all to you.

I shall be eager to hear whether you can be with us at our Seventy Seventh Annual meeting.

Yours most sincerely
Julia Morton Plummer

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library