R. P. LANE DISCUSSES FOREIGN SITUATION

RUHR QUESTION IS SUBJECT OF ADDRESS GIVEN BY STUDENT OF WORLD AFFAIRS

Speaking under the auspices of the History and Political Science Club, Mr. R. P. Lane of the Institute of International Education gave an address on "The French, The British, and the Ruhr" in Alden Hall, Thursday evening, May 24.

Mr. Lane was firm in his belief that relations between France and England are far from what they ought to be, as evidenced by the break at their last conference. He said that this condition has existed for some time, although no official statement of it has been made by either nation, previous to the Paris conference last December.

"France and Germany are very bitter towards each other," said the speaker, "and Germany would take up the sword against France in a minute if she were able."

Great Britain's foreign policy has always been to make friends with her enemies after a war, for she depends upon their trade to keep up her industries. Thus England is drifting away slowly, yet surely, from France towards Germany.

Speaking of the Ruhr occupation and France, Mr. Lane said that the French think that Germany can pay if she wants to; so they are sending their army in hopes of getting what they consider rightly theirs. As a matter of fact the French have obtained less from Germany since they sent their army into the Ruhr than they were getting previous to the occupation of that district. France would rather keep Germany subservient to her as she is now, and get less reparation money, than to let her grow powerful again so that she might be able to pay her debts.

In conclusion Mr. Lane expressed his belief that the United States should join with the other world powers, and act with them towards some solution of the present difficulties.

Previous to his address on the hill, Mr. Lane was entertained by the History and Political Science Club at a dinner in the Lafayette Hotel private dining room.

TENNIS PLAYERS HAVE EVEN BREAK FOR WEEK

WESTMINSTER AND THIEL ARE DEFEATED, BUT PITT AND TECH WIN

Allegheny's tennis team broke even in last week's matches by winning from Thiel and Westminster and losing to Pitt and Tech.

The match with Pitt Tuesday, 22nd, was played without the services of Capt. Clarke, which probably was a reason for the 5 to 1 score. Cochran was the only Meadville man to win and his match with Pitt's star, Garroway, showed some of the fastest tennis displayed here this season.

Both Thiel and Westminster came to Allegheny on Wednesday, where they were met and defeated within five hours. Thiel lost 5-1 and Westminster 6-0. There were only two representatives from New Wilmington, but they offered real opposition; three sets were necessary in every match. The Thiel match was uninteresting as far as the singles matches were concerned. The Greenville doubles teams showed better form, winning one and dropping the second match after a hard fight.

The match with Carnegie Tech Saturday resulted in a 5-1 defeat for Capt. Clarke's team. Marshall, the Tech Star, lost the only event, when Clarke proved his better, 6-3 and 6-4. McQuiston and Pratt played a good doubles match.

The summaries are:

Pitt

Singles—

Cochran (A) defeated Garroway (P), 6-4, 13-11.

Peiffer (P) defeated McQuiston (A), 6-3, 6-2.

Silverman (P) defeated Coale (A), 6-3, 6-0.

Cooper (P) defeated Pratt (A), 1-6, 6-3, 6-3.

OPEN AIR PLAY TO BE COMMENCEMENT FEATURE

"AS YOU LIKE IT" TO BE STAGED JUNE 19 BY SHAKESPEAREAN PLAYERS

As a compliment to alumni, members of the Board of Trustees, and other guests, who will be present during Commencement, the College is preparing to have produced, on the campus, June 19, as an open air play, Shakespeare's, "As You Like It."

The presentation of the play will be directed by Mr. McEntee of New York, who is the manager and principal actor of a company of talented Shakespearean players. The company is very popular and has given many similar performances at a number of colleges and state universities.

Last season they demonstrated their ability in their presentations at the Assembly Grounds, at Chautauqua, N. Y. Any one who was fortunate enough to have seen them there will be glad to witness another performance.

This event will be a new feature of the Commencement program, and since it is to be given entirely free of charge, as a compliment to guests, it should make this Commencement particularly attractive to alumni. More definite announcement of the cast and stage settings for the play will be made as soon as arrangements are completed.

GROVE CITY COLLEGE FOUNDS PERIODICAL

LITERARY PUBLICATION TO BE FOSTERED BY ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

That a medium of literary expression may be afforded to the students of English, Grove City College is editing a periodical containing the best literary productions of the classes of that department for the year.

The journal is edited by the head of the department, Dr. D. C. McEuen. The first edition is to number five hundred copies, the sale of which will be in charge of the college Commercial Department.

Thirty writers in all have contributed to the work, among whom are Ben Jones, well known grid star, who writes a review of the O'Neil plays, and Fred Putts, who ably handles the subject, "The Athlete and His Studies." It contains the winning oration of John Koehler, the playlet, "The Lotus Flower," written by Deborah Thompson and other student expressions.

The intention of the faculty is to make the journal an annual feature, the best work of the department of English for the year to be embodied. The name of the annual is to be determined by contest.

REV. SAM MAXWELL IS JUNE VESPER PREACHER

JUNE 10 IS DATE SET FOR MONTHLY CHAPEL SERVICE

With the Reverend Samuel L. Maxwell, '10, as preacher, the last Vesper Service of the year will be combined with the Annual Sermon before the Christian Associations and will be held in the Chapel June 10.

The annual sermon before the Associations, which was formerly given on Baccalaureate Sunday, has been advanced one week, in order to enable students who wish to, to leave immediately after the examinations.

Rev. Mr. Maxwell has been pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Fredonia, New York, since 1920. After he was graduated from Allegheny in 1910 he studied in Boston University, where he received the degree of S. T. B. in 1913.

During his college career he was prominent in student affairs, and especially active in the work of the Y. M. C. A. During the term 1919-1920, he returned to the college to act as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and director of religious activities in connection with the S. A. T. C. He is a lucid speaker, and his keen observations will make his sermon valuable and interesting to the students.

MOVING UP DAY PLANS FOLLOW USUAL CUSTOM

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, CELEBRATED AS LAST CHAPEL SERVICE OF YEAR

Moving-up Day, the annual college holiday, will be next Wednesday, June 6, the day before the beginning of final examinations.

Although no definite plans for the occasion have been formulated up to this time, it is quite probable that the day will be celebrated by the usual speeches and parade in the morning and by the inter-fraternity track meet in the afternoon. The students will assemble in the chapel at the usual hour Wednesday morning, and there the representatives of the various classes will petition for the seats of the class next higher. After the chapel ceremonies, if the usual custom is carried out, a large part of the students will walk or ride down town in grotesque costumes, and demonstrate to the townspeope the joy that comes with the approach of final examinations.

SERMON BY DR. W. S. MITCHELL IS PUBLISHED IN RELIGOUS JOURNAL

Appearing in the May number of The New York Christian Advocate is a sermon by the Rev. William S. Mitchell, D. D., entitled, "The Enthroned Cross."

Dr. Mitchell has many friends in the college and city. He received his honorary degree at Allegheny in 1915 and was the pastor of Stone Church for several years. At the present time he is serving in the same capacity in Calvary Church, Philadelphia, which is one of the strongest Methodist churches in the country. His "Elements of Personal Christianity" is a book of great inspiration.

ATTENTION 1913 ALUMNI

Plans for the Decennial Reunion of the Class of 1913 are now about completed. A large and comfortable house, not more than a block from the campus, has been rented for the first three days of commencement week.

The class reunion dinner has been arranged for 6 o'clock on Tuesday, June 19th. Ruth M. Thomas will be in charge of the arrangements in Meadville, and temporary headquarters will be arranged for the first week in June. In the meantime all inquiries regarding the reunion should be addressed to the chairman, Mr. Leroy Peterson, 103 East 14th Street, New York City.

GLEE CLUB PRESENTS PROGRAM DOWN TOWN

FINAL CONCERT OF THE YEAR GIVEN IN ACADEMY THEATRE

As a closing engagement of a successful season the Allegheny College Combined Glee and Musical Clubs sang at the Academy Theatre on May 24. The program was the same as that given in the home concert in Ford Memorial Chapel with the exception of the two numbers by the orchestra which was unable to appear at the Academy Theatre due to a previous engagement.

A new method of presenting the concert was tried at this performance, and was found to be quite successful. The club sang without the assistance of the leader, Chase R. Gage, and with only the aid of Mr. Kinkaid at the piano. The ability of the club to do this shows the result of careful training and a thorough knowledge of the work.

On the whole the Glee Club season this year has been a successful one. Concerts were given in Erie, Corry, Pittsburgh, and Warren in addition to the home concert and this last downtown concert. The work of the club has been well received at all these places.

W. M. JONES ATTENDS I. N. A. CONVENTION

ALLEGHENY WILL HOLD SECTIONAL CONFERENCE OF ASSOCIATION IN FALL

Mr. W. Melville Jones, former editor of the Campus, represented Allegheny at the convention of the Intercollegiate News Association held May 18 and 19 at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa.

Editors and business managers of publications of twenty-five of the higher ranking colleges of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania met and discussed the problems which relate to the publication of College newspapers. Allegheny and Washington-Jefferson were the only institutions of Western Pennsylvania to send delegates.

The conference opened Friday evening, May 18, with a banquet at the Haverford Commons Club, at which two noted journalists were the principal speakers. Mr. Waldo, associate editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, who has held positions of high importance with various newspapers, gave a talk on "Journalism" which was particularly illuminating and profitable to college men who are about to enter the profession.

Mr. Carl Ackerman, a man of equal prominence in the newspaper field, spoke on the "Editorial Bloc." As former vice-president of the American Association of Business and as correspondent in France and Russia during the war, Mr. Ackerman has had extensive and valuable experience, and is considered a journalist of great ability and power.

At a half-hour business meeting held Saturday morning, May 19, various problems of make-up, staff arrangement, and advertising were considered. An amendment to the constitution of the Association, proposed by Mr. Jones of Allegheny, was passed unanimously. By this change the Association will be divided into four zones. The colleges in each zone will hold two conferences each fall which will be attended by as many as possible of the staff members of the publications concerned. A general conference of the Association will be held each spring. In the same zone with Allegheny are, Washington-Jefferson, Thiel, and Westminster, which was admitted at this last convention. The sectional conferences are to be entertained in the different schools of the zone in rotation order. The first conference for this zone will be held at Allegheny sometime next fall, probably in October.

NOTICE

The Student Suitatorium will be closed from Monday, June 11, to Friday, June 15, on account of examinations.

DR. F. S. BREED TO SPEAK DURING COMMENCEMENT

KAPPA PHI KAPPA ADDRESS TO BE GIVEN BY PROMINENT EDUCATOR

Dr. Frederick S. Breed, Professor of Education at the University of Chicago, will deliver an address at Allegheny on Tuesday, June 19, under the auspices of Kappa Phi Kappa. Dr. Breed is an alumnus of Allegheny, class of '98, and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the College. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa as well as the American Psychological Association, the Society of College Teachers of Education, and the National Society for the Study of Education. He is a Fellow of the American Association for the advancement of science.

Dr. Breed is particularly well known in Meadville as he was superintendent of the public school system in this city from 1905 to 1911.

Since his graduation he has held responsible positions at Harvard University, University of Michigan, and at the University of Chicago. The degree of Doctor of Philosophy was conferred upon him by Harvard in 1909. Dr. Breed has been a frequent contributor to the educational journals and is a recognized authority in the field of education.

ALUMNUS SENDS LETTER FROM MALAY STATES

MR. ROBERT BLASDELL '18, SENDS CURRENCY AS SOUVENIR

Mr. Robert Blasdell, '18, of Ipoh, Perak, Federated Malay States, has written Miss Edith Rowley, editor of the alumni bulletin, as follows:

"The College Bulletin came today, and I have just finisned reading it. It is very interesting and took me right back among familiar surroundings. I enjoyed every page, but was especially interested in the tribute to Bishop Thoburn. You think that you have appreciated him in Meadville, but you should be out here where you could come in contact with his work. This was not the field of his greatest labor, but his footprints are here; the signs follow."

Enclosed with the letter were a silver certificate issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco to cover Mr. Blasdell's alumni dues, and a bank note of the Malay States, which he sent as a souvenir. The "native" bill is also called a "dollar" and is printed in English. Both are on display in the show case in the library to show the extent of Allegheny's maternal relationships.

DR. W. H. CRAWFORD FILLS PULPIT TEMPORARILY

PRESIDENT EMERITUS TO SERVE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH THIS SUMMER

President Emeritus William H. Crawford is tentatively filling the pulpit of the Park Avenue Congregational Church, following the resignation of Reverend R. T. Elliott to take a charge in Buffalo, New York. Dr. Crawford's first sermon was delivered on May 13, and until a permanent minister has been secured he will continue to fill the pulpit throughout May and June with the exception of those Sundays upon which a candidate is being heard.

Last Sabbath Dr. Crawford preached upon a text from Matthew 7:24 appropos to the controversy over Fundamentalism that waged in the recent Presbyterian convention. The next sermon will be given by the Reverend Samuel Johnson of Redmond, North Dakota.

CLEVELAND ALUMNI HOLD LUNCHEON

The Cleveland alumni made Dr. R. E. Lee's visit in Cleveland the occasion for an informal luncheon at the Business Women's Club on Tuesday noon, May 22. Alumni and former students were delighted at this opportunity to hear from Dr. Lee informally of the life and work back at the college, and to meet with him and with each other.

BLUE AND GOLD WINS MEET WITH ROCHESTER

CLOSE SCORE OF 68-67 GIVES VICTORY TO ALLEGHENY

Allegheny won the closest track meet in the history of the college last Saturday when it nosed out the University of Rochester at Rochester in a dual contest, by the score of 68-67. The meet was not decided in favor of the Blue and Gold until the last event, the javelin, was completed. With all of the other races and field contests finished, Allegheny was on the short end of a 64-62 score. Piper threw the shaft farther than all other entries and with Judd's third place the Varsity came across with a scanty, but well earned win.

Rochester was easily supreme in all of the running events except the mile run. In this race, Little, Mackintosh, and Bliss all wearing Blue and Gold, finished in respective order. In the other races in the middle distance events, Milliman in the two mile and Shedd in the hurdles were close and in every case the Rochester winners were forced to extend themselves.

It was in the field events that Allegheny managed to count up most of its points. Our varsity won six out of seven of all the field contests losing only in the broad jump when Dunn leaped well over twenty-one feet and set a new record for his University in this event. Judd and Parnell were the high scorers for the Blue and Gold in the field contests. The latter had scored three first places in weight events but was unfortunately forced from competition later in the meet when he sprained his ankle in his high jump trials. With big Fred laid up, Allegheny's chances for a bigger margined win were lost but the rest of the squad came through in fine fettle to enable them to make a success out of their long trip.

Judd was the individual high scorer of the meet having run up a total of 23 points. What is more noteworthy than this is that the husky sophomore was entered in seven or all of the field events and managed to win a place in every one of them. Judd won two

DR. CHAS. H. STOCKING SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

ALLEGHENY'S OLDEST CIVIL WAR VETERAN DELIVERS INFORMAL ADDRESS

In an informal talk characterized by genial good humor and pleasant reminisences, Dr. Charles H. Stocking, '66, addressed the students at chapel hour Tuesday morning, May 29. Dr. Stocking is the oldest alumnus of Allegheny who is a veteran of the Civil War. He is still an active pastor of the Methodist Church, this being his fifty-fifth year in the ministry. He was present in Meadville Tuesday and Wednesday as guest of the Junior Veteran Association of this city, and delivered the Memorial Day address for the Sergeant Peiffer Post of that organization yesterday.

His speech in chapel was of an entirely informal nature. He started with what he called a Junior League lesson, and spoke briefly on the Sunday School task of learning the names of the books of the Bible. In fact, Dr. Stocking himself recited the names of these books from Genesis to Revelations, much to the delight of his listeners. After this, he indulged in a few pleasant reminiscences of the college in the 60's and of his own early experiences both here and in his first few pastorates.

The conclusion of the talk was clinched by the statement that every one has a vision, and everyone has a task, and to illustrate his point he related an amusing tale of how a missionary captured in a cannibal island outwitted his captors and later reformed them.

Mrs. R. E. Lee is in the St. Vincent's Hospital, where she underwent a serious operation last Tuesday, by Dr. Frank E. Bunts of the Cleveland Clinic. While Mrs. Lee is progressing splendidly, it will be several weeks before she will be able to return to Meadville.

COMMENCEMENT PROMISES TO BE BUSY WEEK.

Although Commencement is yet three weeks away, it is already attracting the attention of student and alumnus alike. To the student it represents the beginning of a vacation from a strain of classes and examinations, an opportunity to regain ambition for another year. To the alumnus it means a home-coming and a return awaited with pleasure.

Students and alumni are awaiting 1923 Commencement with particular interest. And well they may. Each day of the entire commencement week contributes to a varied program, including addresses, music, and drama. President Frank Aydelotte of Swarthmore College will speak at the meeting of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Alexander Mann of Pittsburgh will deliver the Commencement address, the Reverend Samuel L. Maxwell will be the speaker for the combined vesper and Christian Association service, and the Rev. William L. Stidger of Detroit will deliver the regular annual vesper sermon. The Shakespearean play, "As You Like It," will be presented on the campus by a professional company and will be an enjoyable entertainment for the college and its many visitors.

The alumni have been active in arranging class reunions and making plans for their return. In addition to the decennial reunion, smaller groups will be reunited after some years of separation. From all present indications, one of the five most beautiful campuses in America, with its flowered ravine and picturesque bridge, will be the center of much activity.

HOW ABOUT IT, SENIORS?

"Twenty per cent of recent graduates stimulated to do graduate work," is the significant statement made in an Allegheny pamphlet which is mailed to prospective students. Twenty out of every hundred Alleghenians, or one out of every five, leave here to enter some institution of higher learning.

Allegheny is not a preparatory school, but neither is it a professional school. The catalog definitely explains that our college does not undertake to fit the student to enter a profession without further technical study.

Competition in the professional and business world is great. Students who enter either find themselves competing with many who have had a technical as well as college education. Obviously, college training is not enough.

Twenty members of the class of 1922 are now in some university. How many of the present seniors will be in such an institution next fall?

MANY CHANGES MADE IN EXAM SCHEDULE

The following is the revised examination schedule for the second term. Changes have been made in this schedule which should be noted carefully. The official copy of the schedule will be posted June 1. There are unavoidably a few conflicts. These should be reported to the registrar's office at once that arrangements may be made. Senior examinations must be completed before Tuesday evening, June 12. Seniors who have examinations scheduled after that date will be examined specially at times to be fixed by the instructors.

HULINGS FOOLINGS
BY DAISY ALMOND

SPRING PARTIES

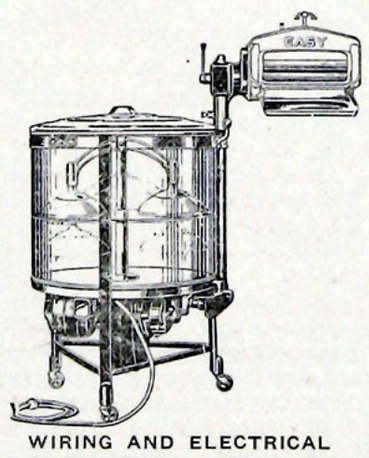

This party has to be elite! At the sixth dance prepare to eat. Get set for honest food. But when you start to leave the floor, don't beat the chaperones to the door, for then they think we're crude. Then when you reach the dining table, find your place quick as you are able, and then let silence fall. When all are right where they belong, let each one raise her voice in song. And should that singing stall, the girl who fails to use her voice won't have occasion to rejoice about her penance dire. At our next party all alone, she'll ask a blessing of her own; so don't desert the choir. Come to my room and have a look at the Dean's new Rules for Dancing book, and learn each one by heart. So when you see the chaperones' scowl, know that they plan to call a foul, and dance a foot apart. Just watch that dancing! When you finish up your program, hand it in. You'll get it back that night. Don't let your checks be long delayed, we've got to get the orchestra paid before tomorrow night. Don't make your man wait at the hall, to hint for flowers won't go at all, and so be sure you do each little thing that we have said. Before the evening hours have sped, bid the fond chaps adieu.

SHORT STORIES

I love the plot about the girl college

because she must cheer the last years of her rich and aged uncle.
Don't be afraid Romance will miss her.
It won't be in a freshman

The authors ask
"Where would you have her meet him?
In Europe or Canada?"
So the aged uncle takes her to Canada.
She meets a

"Out of the Snows."
He rescues her from a forest fire.
She revives
and gazing into the depths of his dark

(How would you describe Rodolph's eyes, dear?)
—She murmurs
"Safe, safe in your arms."
(Would you end the story there?
Or would you have him
turn out to be an English Lord?
It would be lovely
to describe her wedding, and besides, I need two hundred and eighty nine more words.)

GARRETT
Established in 1853
One of the really great theological seminaries of the country.
WALTER DILL SCOTT, President Northwestern University
"With intimate acquaintance of most of the seminaries of the United States, extending from the time when I was president of the Federal Council, I wish to offer my testimony that no church in American Protestantism has, taking it by and large, any higher grade of seminaries than has Methodism. In development of curricula, modern scholarship, and general progressiveness, I think they are in the very van of theological education and in the matter of supervised field work they have made a distinct place for themselves. Of the Methodist group Garrett stands in the forefront."

CLUB ACTIVITIES

MODERN PROBLEMS CLUB

Arden Mook was elected president of the Modern Problems Club at a meeting held in the seminar room of the Library on Tuesday evening, May 22. Courtney Dale and Arthur Webb will be vice-president and secretary for the coming year.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Prof. R. W. Skelton spoke on the modern methods of transportation. Particular reference was made to trucking. The speaker briefly outlined the history of transportation from the time of the canal-boat down to the present day. He emphasized the fact in distances of less than eighty miles it is more economical to ship by truck. The reason for this is that trucking is quicker and expensixe packing is eliminated. In distances greater than eighty miles the railroad is the cheapest method of transportation.

CLASSICAL CLUB

Officers for next year were elected at the meeting of the Classical Club which was held in the Library on Tuesday, May 22.

Mr. R. W. Pratt was elected chairman of the executive committee, Mr. H. D. Hummer member-at-large, and Miss Edith Briggs secretary-treasurer. After the installation of new officers, plans were discussed for the ensuing year.

FACULTY NOTES

President F. W. Hixson has been invited to deliver the commencement addresses at several high schools. Last Thursday he spoke at the Commencement of Saegertown High School.

Dr. J. R. Schultz attended he Kiwanis convention which was held at Atanta, Georgia, last week.

We are glad to see Dr. J. W. Miles around the campus again. Although in a weakened state, he is gradually recovering from his serious illness.

Whatever your "Choice of a Career," college training has increased your economic value, and whatever business or profession you enter, adequate life insurance is a proper self-appraisal of your powers in that direction.
The traditions, practices, and financial strength of the JOHN HANCOCK Mutual Life Insurance Company are such that the college man can take peculiar pride in having a John Hancock policy on his life. It is a distinct asset from the start. It will pay you to buy it; and later on, should you think of joining this company, it will also pay you to sell it. Our representatives will tell you just how, and can assist you in selecting both your career and your insurance.

TRACK TEAM GOES TO BONAVENTURE SATURDAY

NEW YORKERS PROVIDE FINAL MEET FOR BLUE AND GOLD

With three victories to their credit in four meets, Coach Hammett's cinder path athletes are working with continued diligence in preparation for the final contest of the season. St. Bonaventure will oppose the local trackers on the field of the New York school this Saturday afternoon.

Although the Bonaventure team suffered defeat a week ago Saturday at the hands of Alfred University, which school proved rather easy for the Blue and Gold in the meet here, injuries to Parnell and Miller will hurt the point-scoring efficiency of the team greatly. Fred Parnell suffered a bad injury to his ankle Saturday while high-jumping and will be available only for the shot-put and discus. Even in these events will his effectiveness be hurt. Hoppy Miller suffered a like injury pole-vaulting and will be missed in that event and also in the sprints.

The Bonaventure runners are practically certain of a few firsts. In the short dashes, the hundred, and two-twenty they have two exceptionally good performers. According to reports, Captain Wimmer will have to step some to take the quarter, but an easy time is predicted for the Blue and Gold men in the middle and long distance runs, except possibly in the two-mile.

The New York state team is reputed to be strong in the pole-vault, shot-put, javelin and broad jump. Piper will have to exceed all his previous marks to place first in the javelin, for the Bonaventue star has thrown the spear 150 feet regularly. In the broad jump, with Brownell and Parnell out, a jump of 20 feet, 6 inches, such as the Bonaventure contestant is said to be capable of, may capture first place.

Ordinarily, it would be safe to predict a vicotry by twenty points, but with three stars on the hospital list, Coach Hammett hesitates to predict victory by more than a few points. Nevertheless, the squad will leave Friday for Allegany, N. Y., determined to annex a win in the last contest of the year.

INTER FRATERN TY BASEBALL

The big contest of the week, between the Sigs and Phi Gams was an exciting seven-inning pitchers' battle. Hanlon, pitching for the Sigs, allowed the Fijis no hits, while Byham, former varsity twirler for Bucknell, gave away only four. Two of these came in the same inning, the fifth and resulted in the only run of the game, which, however, meant victory for the Sigs. As a result of this game, the Phi Gams are practically eliminated as contenders for the championship and the Sigs are again in the running. On Wednesday, Phi Alpha Kappa won from Delta Tau Delta, 5-1. The other scheduled games were postponed.

Standings of the Teams

BLUE AND GOLD WINS

firsts, four seconds, and a third. Dunn of the University team was next in line among the point-getters having accumulated 18, by virtue of copping a trio of firsts and a second. Other high men were Parnell, 15 points, and Shedd and White of Rochester with ten apiece. Shedd in scoring two firsts in the hurdles was especially forced to travel fast as in the 120 yard high hurdles he was forced to tie the Rochester record to beat out Remington his team-mate, and Loomis of Allegheny. Summary:

Track Events
