Nineteen Twenty-Nine.

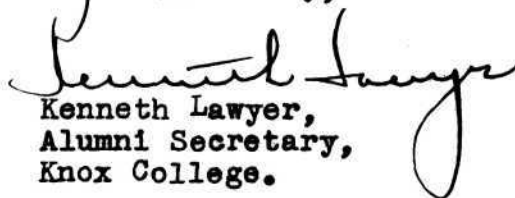

My dear Miss Scanlan:

Many thanks to you for your wire of January 2 regarding my letter to Miss Tarbell. Receiving that word enables me to change my plans accordingly.

Will you please tell Miss Tarbell when she recovers that I am now planning to use the article in a later issue of my magazine and that if she still wishes to write it, I would like to have it about a month from now. (unless I could have it by Jan. 9.)

With thanks to you and with best wishes to Miss Tarbell and hopes for a quick recovery, I am

Yours sincerely,
