454 East 179th St. Easter - 1916

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Do you see any light.

You will not forget us.

I can not let go the hope we will yet be saved.

If the case goes to trial in May - and I lose - the costs may be a thousand dollars.

Even after every thing is taken, despite greatest frugality — there may yet be a claim.

Sincerely

Elizabeth Meeum

Digital image © 2010, the Ida M. Tarbell Collection, Allegheny College, Pelletier Library