"THE TAILOR-MADE MAN" BY WHITNEY TOMORROW

VOLUME NO. XLII. NO. 1[illegible] MEADVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA JANUARY 15, 1924

TOM DAVIES NAMED AS NEW FOOTBALL COACH

HERB McCRACKEN LEAVES BLUE AND GOLD TO COACH LAFAYETTE SQUAD

Two events of outstanding importance to the whole athletic world, but of particular significance to all Alleghenians ,have occurred since the last issue of the Campus. The doleful news of the signing of Herb McCracken, for three years Allegheny football coach, to a Lafayette contract, was shortly followed by the satisfying announcement that the nationally famous Tom Davies would take Herb's place.

To say that Allegheny is sorry to see McCracken leave is to put it mildly. Coming here immediately after his graduation from the University of Pittsburgh in 1921, and without any previous coaching experience, Herb turned out a fair team in the fall of that year. The following autumn he did much better; in fact, the Allegheny squad of 1922 was generally considered the strongest team in Class B circles at the close of the season. The record of last year's aggregation is too fresh in memory to need exposition; it was the best football team Allegheny ever had. That Herb will turn out as good a team at Lafayette is the best wish of the many friends he has left here.

Tom Davies, brilliant halfback, successful coach at Pennsylvania and Geneva, is a successor that may well be expected to continue where McCracken has left off. Tom's gridiron career began at Pitt, where he starred for four years, winning All-American in '18 and '21, his first and last years. He has been acclaimed the greatest halfback that ever played on a Pitt team. After having been graduated from Pitt in '22, he was signed up by Penn as backfield coach for the fall of that same year, and met with such success that Geneva selected him for head coach for the following year. At Geneva he developed a strong combination—second in Class B only to Allegheny—from material that was at best but mediocre. His record there classes him as one of the best among the younger generation of coaches.

Davies is primarily a backfield coach, and as such should fit in admirably at Allegheny. Allegheny's line is one of the strongest in the country, and the backfield, while by no means weak, needs strengthening more than does the line. The fact that he is a Warner coach means that he can continue the system initiated by McCracken with little of the wasted effort ordinarily expended when a new coach takes the reins.

HOCKEY ASSOCIATION ELECTS GOVERNING BODY

CANDIDATES FOR TEAM TAKE ADVANTAGE OF WINTER WEATHER

With the advent of winter, Allegheny skating and hockey enthusiasts are working out on the dam which was recently converted into a college rink for winter sports. The conditions at the dam have been favorable for good skating during the past few days, and prospects are that they will continue to be so for some time.

About a dozen candidates are reporting for the daily hockey practices, and under the coaching of Dr. Faries a good team should be turned out. The team has the sanction of the Athletic Board of Control and if funds are provided, a schedule with outside competition will be arranged. At the present time Dundon, Humeston, Welsh, and Miller are showing up well in the practices. More material could be used to build up the squad, and all men interested are requested to report at the rink any afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All candidates should bring their hockey sticks with them to the daily workouts.

The Allegheny Skating and Hockey Association recently held its election of officers, and the following officials were selected: President, Athletic Director C. E. Hammett; Vice-President, Chase Gage; Treasurer, Alden Humeston; Assistant-Treasurer. Lawrence Pattison.

Dr. C. A. Darling lectured before the Kiwanis Club at Franklin on January 3. His subject was "Health."

ED WHITNEY, ENTERTAINER APPEARS HERE TOMORROW

DRAMATIC READER WILL PRESENT "TAILOR MADE MAN," IN CHAPEL

Edwin M. Whitney, known throughout the country as the leading dramatic reader of the day, will present "The Tailor Made Man" in Ford Memorial Chapel tomorrow night at eight o'clock, coming under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

An exacting Lyceum world places Mr. Whitney in the foremost rank among its great readers and dramatic interpreters. The genius of Edwin M. Whitney consists in an unequalled ability to make characters of literature live before his audience. More than a mere reader or impersonator, he has dignified his art with an understanding realism.

"The Tailor Made Man" is an excellent vehicle for Mr. Whitney's art. The play, written by Harry James Smith, is the story of the success of John Paul Bart. Bart is a tailor's

WORLD UNREST DISCUSSED AT STUDENT CONVENTION

YOUTH MOVEMENT GAINS POWERFUL IMPETUS AT INDIANAPOLIS ASSEMBLY

With a gathering of more than seven thousand students representing a thousand colleges in the United States and Canada and over thirty nations from all parts of the world, the Student Volunteer Movement held its Ninth Quadrennial Convention in Indianapolis. The sessions of the convention began on December 28 and closed January 1. Allegheny's delegates to this international assembly were: John M. Pratt, G. Alfred Palmer, R. Russell Denison, Charles W. Havice, and the Misses Helen Fry and Elizabeth Laffer.

The convention met for the purpose of discussing the outstanding viewpoints on the critical questions which are facing nations in the world-wide unrest. These were treated under the four general phases: International Relations, Industrial and Social Problems, Race Prejudices, and the Youth Movement. The discussions were quite definitely applied to college life, such as the negro and the fraternity, the Ku Klux Klan, and Pacifism. Sherwood Eddy delivered the most impressive and dynamic speech of the convention in which he described the "Social and Intellectual Unrest." He severely denounced the Klan and its lawless activities and criticised the materialism, the industrialization, and the racial autocracy in America. He pictured the revolt of Youth against the old Social Order which is gaining added impetus among the coming generation in every country. Mr. Blanchard made a stirring appeal to the delegates on industrial and social problems in which he condemned the existing evils in the industrial world and offered as a solution to these ills a closer adherence to the teachings of Christ. Various speakers from China, Arabia, Japan, Africa, and other countries gave their frank and unprejudiced opinions concerning race problems. Each presented his point of view fairly and without animosity or bitterness, and each one came to the conclusion that a more Christlike attitude of one race toward another is the only solution to the problem.

ALLEGHENY OPENS SEASON WITH AMHERST VICTORY

PITT NOSES OUT LOCAL FIVE IN HARD FOUGHT CONTEST BY 35-50 SCORE

A decisive victory over Amherst on the home floor on January 2, a narrow defeat at the hands of Pitt last Friday night and another defeat the following night at Morgantown, by the West Virginia Mountaineers is the record of the Blue and Gold on the floor so far this year. A green team, with the exception of one man, Captain Ross, whipped into shape in a few weeks by Coach Baker, has shown remarkable fighting spirit and gameness, thus making up what it lacks in weight and strength. The result of the Amherst game was a distinct surprise, many expecting a defeat for Allegheny, on account of the showing made by the New England Collegians against Pitt, Grove City, Thiel and Geneva. Allegheny's play in this game was flashy at times, mediocre at others, because of the inexperience of the new men. Captain Ross excelled on the offense, caging six pretty two-pointers. McClurg, a bit scared at first, got going later and dropped in a couple. Wolf, Schultz, and Judd also contributed to the scoring, as did Hartman, who was substituted for Judd. The team work of the entire five men was excellent; a clean, fast, passing game was used throughout, no long shots being attempted. Fries, Yengst, and Hartman were all put into the game, and their work showed that the play of the team need not suffer through substitutions. The defense of both teams was clever, Wolf and Shultz, however, doing the best work in this department. The score was 33-19.

PITT 35—ALLEGHENY 30

Playing a stubborn, fighting game, the Allegheny quintet went down to defeat before the Pitt Panther at Motor Square Garden last Friday night by the narow margin of five points. Allegheny played real basketball in that they refused long shots even with the time short. Judd with five beautiful field goals did more to keep Allegheny in the running than any other one man. He gave the best exhibition of the play of the pivot position that has been seen in Pittsburgh for some time. Bohren, Levinson, and King were high scorers for Pitt, the last named accounting for five baskets. Play waxed fast and furious toward the end of the game, Pitt leading.

BIBLE CLASS ADOPTS NEW STUDY COURSE

WORLD PROBLEMS TO OCCUPY CLASS IN SERIES OF DISCUSSIONS

Last Sunday at the Stone Church, preliminary to the beginning of a new course of study, international problems, the College Men's Bible Class discussed the position of youth in the world. Dr. C. F. Littell talked about the younger generation. He said the youth of the world has always been forced to bear the brunt of the intrigues and animosities of the older men at the head of governments. The statesmen and autocrats make wars, and the young people are forced to fight them. It is time for youth to take a stand for itself.

This lecture was merely an introductory topic to the list of discussions outlined by Glenn D. Adams in his pamphlet, "A World Outlook," published by the Y. M. C. A., and adopted by the class for its study. There are nine lessons in this course of study. That they deal with topics of universal, present-day interest is proved by mention of a few of the subjects: Historical Development, The Contribution of Each Race, The World Court, and The League of Nations. Each lesson begins with a generous list of references, followed by an introduction and then the practical problem with its logical conclusion.

Next Sunday the first subject in the pamphlet will be the topic for the lesson, "The World a Neighborhood."

In addition to the regular lecture, Charles W. Havice and R. Russell Dennison gave their impressions of the Student Volunteer Convention, held at Indianapolis during the holidays.

Attendance records were broken at this first meeting of the year, with the presence of fifty-two college men.

JUNIORS TO HAVE PROM IN ARMORY, FEBRUARY 1

"BLUE RIBBON SYNKOPATORS" TO PLAY FOR ALL-COLLEGE FUNCTION

Coming the last day of examinations in the recess between semesters, the Junior Prom, the most important and most eagerly anticipated all-college function of the social season, will be held in the State Armory, Friday evening, February 1.

The "Blue Ribbon Synkopators," an orchestra of accomplished collegiate merry-makers, will be on hand to exhibit something new in the line of syncopation, close harmony, and snappy breaks for the occasion. These musicians have played for several fraternity parties recently and have demonstrated their ability to play the kind of music most acceptable to a college group.

Plans are well under way to turn the Armory into the most enticing of ball rooms with appropriate decorations in the college colors, blue and gold, and with banners and insignia of the various fraternities on the Hill. Everything, from refreshments to favors, will be of the best, and speaking of favors; they are something no man or woman should miss, something novel and clever that will carry the memories of this Prom far into more conscious and serious years. Because of the ravaging winter weather the stock of local florists cannot be counted upon; so it has been decided to adhere to the tradition established in recent years, and the ladies will attend with the anticipation of enjoying themselves and without the trouble of protecting corsages.

The time is not yet definitely set, but will probably be from 8 o'clock until 12 as in other years. The chaperons will be Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hixson and Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee, and all members of the faculty are most cordially invited. The committee in charge is: Leo Ross, chairman; R. E. Piper, R. H. Demmler, F. C. Reed, H. W. Cummings, T. B. Baker, G. E. Mason, and W. A. Risher. The admission fee will be five dollars.

SEATING ARRANGEMENTS CHANGED IN WILCOX

MODERN DESK-CHAIRS REPLACE UNCOMFORTABLE STRAIGHT-BACK BENCHES

The opening of college after the Christmas recess found a decided improvement in the seating arrangement of Wilcox Hall lecture room. During the vacation carpenters tore out the old seats and stairways and rebuilt the platforms. The new arrangement provides ample room between the rows and safer footing on the single stairway that has replaced the two old stairways.

The old straight back, built-in oak benches have at last disappeared and in their place are to be found comfortable chairs. These chairs will be replaced by American Seating Company stationary College pattern tablet arm chairs in the near future. Sixty of these most modern lecture room seats will be installed in Wilcox as soon as they arrive.

Dr. C. J. Ling personally supervised the work and it was through his influence that the change was brought about. Other improvements that will be made in the future in the lecture room are the installation of electric lights and the redecoration of the walls.

FACULTY NOTES

President Fred W. Hixson preached the sermon at the worship of the First Congregational Church last Sunday.

Dr. F. G. Henke attended the Philadelphia meeting of the State Education Association during the Christmas recess. Among prominent speakers at the meeting were Governor Pinchot, Dr. Cadman, of New York, and Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia. Dr. Henke was elected secretary of the College and University Round Table.

Dr. Kellogg F. Bascom, acting head of the Biology Department last year, is now teaching History in the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania. His address is 4229 Baltimore Ave., Philadelphia, Penna.

ALUMNUS GIVES $25,000 FOR FRESHMAN HALL

MR. JOHN B. FORD MAKES GENEROUS PROPOSAL FOR NEW COLLEGE BUILDING

President Fred W. Hixson received on January 2 from Mr. John B. Ford, of Detroit, the gift of $25,000 toward the erection of the new freshman residence. The building will be erected in five non-intercommunicating units and will cost $125,000. Two of the units are now provided for. Other gifts are pending. It is hoped that by Commencement provision for the entire building will have been made. Mr. Ford is a member of the Class of 1888 and is one of the leading business men in the city of Detroit. He has been a trustee of the College for a number of years. The gift is another substantial evidence of the fact that the solid worth of the College appeals to thoughtful men, and that here is an attractive field for investment in higher education. When this building is erected, Allegheny will have ideal living conditions for first year men.

THETA UPSILON CHAPTER INSTALLED AT ALLEGHENY

NEW HELLENICS ENTERTAINED WITH AFTERNOON TEA AND RECEPTION IN EVENING

Eta Chapter of Theta Upsilon was formally installed as the most recent women's fraternity in the College on Saturday, January 12. The initiation and installation ceremonies took place in Hulings Hall from 10 to 12:30 o'clock and were followed by a luncheon in the sorority rooms for the initiated and the visiting delegates.

Ten girls were initiated as charter members of Eta Chapter. They are: Misses Harriet Brydle, '25, Conneaut, Ohio; Ruth Elliott, '25, Meadville; Elizabeth King, '25, Ashtabula, Ohio; Harriette Wilson, '25, Rochester, N. Y.; LaRoux Rasel, '26, McKeesport; Mary Alice Jackson, ' 26, Martha Schwartz, '26, and Margaret McMillan, '26, all of Pittsburgh; Mary Phelps, '26, Warren, Ohio; and Beatrice Mullain, '15, Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Jean McCrum, '27, of Bradford, has also been pledged. The ceremonies were presided over by the following members of the National organization: Miss Alice Swisher, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio; vice-president of the National Council; Miss Eleanor Barnes, Columbus, Ohio, National Treasurer; Miss Dorothy West, Delaware, Ohio; and Miss Madge Beyers, Ohio State University.

Eta Chapter is the seventh chapter to be ,installed by Theta Upsilon which was founded at the University of California in 1914. The local group received recognitions by the organization early last December, at which time the pledging of the above mentioned girls took place.

On Saturday afternoon a tea in honor of the girls of the new chapter and visiting delegates was given by Mrs. Fred W. Hixson, Mrs. William A. Elliott, and Miss Alice Huntingdon Spalding at the Hixson residence. Among the guests were the members of the other sororities on the Hill, the alumnae of the city and faculty ladies.

In the evening, from eight to eleven, the sorority held a formal reception for the trustees, faculty, and students of the College in Hulings Hall. On the receiving line were President and Mrs. Fred W. Hixson, Miss Alice Huntingdon Spalding, the National delegates of Theta Upsilon, and the charter members and pledges of Eta Chapter. The entire first floor of the Hall was used for the reception was very attractively arranged and decorated. Delicate refreshments were served in the dining room during the evening and an excellent three piece orchestra, consisting of violin, cello, and piano rendered a delightful program.

COLLEGE GLEE CLUB GIVES HOME CONCERT

SOLOS, QUARTETS, AND ENSEMBLE NUMBERS RECEIVE ENTHUSIASTIC APPLAUSE

Before a representative audience of college students and townspeople last night in the Ford Memorial Chapel the Allegheny College Men's Glee Club presented in its home concert one of the best entertainments of the year. The concert fulfilled even the highest expectations of those who attended.

With more than three months of training under Prof. Lee Hess Barnes and the experience of having given its first concert, the club was able to give an excellent presentation of every selection attempted. The numbers by the club were under the personal direction of Mr. Chase R. Gage who acted so successfully in that capacity last season and who has been connected with the organization since his matriculation at Allegheny.

The program was opened with the song "Now Let Every Tongue Adore," by Bach. This was followed by a tenor solo by Mr. Baker. The Club entertained next with the "Song of the Marching Men," by Hadley. An encore to this was given in the "Redman's Death Chant."

"Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses" a later quartet number, which perhaps offered a little more opportunity for harmony, was more appreciated than the double quartet selection, "The Top of the Mornin'." "Mah Lindy Lou," a quaint southern song, brought strenuous applause from the audience. Following an excellent piano solo by Mr. Kincaid the men sang one of last year's favorites, "The Sword of Ferrara," which made one's thoughts turn to old picturesque tales of ancient Spain.

Following the intermission, "The Blizzard," another song from last year, was attempted with equal success. Mr. Gealy's work in the trumpet solo, the next number, was that of an artist at the instrument. Mr. Hartzell next entertained with a baritone solo. With a swing and melody that carried through the entire song, "Goin' Home," by Dvorak, sung by the Club, held the audience until the final note.

The evening's program was brought to a close with "Near the Vale" and "Alma Mater Beatissima," both of which showed the result of constant preparation by the men.

Concerning the future plans of the organization, Graduate Manager, C. W. Skinner states that two tours to Cleveland and Pittsburgh and intervening points may be taken if satisfactory arrangements can be made.

VARSITY SWIMMING TEAM PREPARE BUSY SCHEDULE

PITT, BUFFALO, AND THIEL CONTESTS PENDING—MATERIAL GOOD

Under the direction of Captain Vic Wright, candidates for the swimming team have been working out faithfully in the pool. Material is plentiful and a fairly good tank team should represent Allegheny during the present season. Although there has been some difficulty in arranging meets, especially with college teams, several other contests have been arranged and the schedule will keep the team quite busy.

A meet with the University of Buffalo, at that city, on the evening of February 8 is the only college meet definitely scheduled, although negotiations are in progress for a home-and-home series with Thiel, and also for a meeting with the University of Pitts-

THE CHALLENGE TO YOUTH

It is impossible to bring back in its full measure the inspiration and effectiveness of that great student convention at Indianapolis. But the editor, co-operating with a hundred and thirty other editors, wants to convey to you in a personal way something of the spirit which characterized the assembly of over seven thousand college and university students coming from all parts of the United States and from many foreign countries.

No delegate could attend the mass meetings, which filled the spacious tabernacle, without a feeling of revolt against provincialism. For one of the severe accusations made against campus life is its narrowness, its failure to see beyond its own walls. There was a true and felt international attitude which had to exit before any progress could be made on such an all-containing question as "What Is Wrong with the World?"

There was no bush-beating, no superficiality. If a member of the body believed in pacifism, he said so. If another believed that the Ku Klux Klan is America's greatest enemy, he said so. Free expression was fearlessly made. The result was that thousands of men and women left that Hoosier city thinking more seriously and more daringly than they had ever thought before.

The Renaissance of Youth, the Youth Movement, the Revolt of Youth—call it what you will—is both threatening and offering hope to a desperate world. Young people of all colors and creeds are joining in one mighty link all around the globe to accomplish what a more mature generation failed to accomplish either by war, compact, politicians, or Wall Street. The Movement has already gained such a foothold on every continent that to crush it would be to crush youth itself. With uncompromising boldness and unshakable conviction the Renaissance of the Youth of the World offers Christ as the untried solution and pledges itself to bring peace on earth and goodwill to men.

ALLEGHENY'S BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

Allegheny's prospects for a championship basketball team are at the present time rather uncertain. Captain Ross is the only regular from last year's team, the remainder of the squad being composed of inexperienced material. However, several of the new men show promising ability and may develop into stars before the end of the season. The entire squad has worked faithfully for Coach Baker and made a good beginning in winning the first game of the season. If the same form is displayed throughout the remaining games, Allegheny's basketball record will compare favorably with that of her brilliant football season. The schedule is particularly difficult this year inasmuch as the teams which the Blue and Gold will face have been strengthened and are more experienced. Although the team has suffered defeats at the hands of Pitt and West Virginia, the players fought encouragingly. As the season progresses, the Allegheny quintet will round into shape, and better results may be expected.

TO ISSUE ALUMNI EDITION

As a means of establishing closer contact among Alleghenians, a special edition of The Campus will appear next month devoted particularly to alumni interests. The alumni are eager to know what is taking place back at old Alleghe, but they are also interested in knowing what their classmates are doing. In order to communicate with her alumni, the College is sending The Campus each week to them. The news of Allegheny life is carried to almost every State in the Union and to our alumni in foreign fields as well. Thus, through the columns of The Campus an alumnus may get in touch with his fellow Alleghenians. A more spontaneous intercourse of this nature is the purpose for which the special alumni edition is to be published. It is hoped that the issue will encourage similar contributions in successive issues.

WINTER SPORTS MADE POPULAR

Winter sports at Allegheny have come into their own with the organizing of the Allegheny College Hockey and Skating Association. While the sport cannot assume the scale that is to be found at Dartmouth and other more northern institutions, the season here offers possibilities well worth developing. Dr. Faries and his corps of workers deserve commendation for their initiative and persistence.

Campus Filings

From the Campus of the Younger Allegheny.

October 1898.

There is a marked drop off in the number of regulars at the Hall. What is the matter? Don't let athletics take all your attention but devote a little time to the dear girls. This is a co-ed school.

December 1887.

The Glee Club lately blossomed out in brand new dress suits and forthwith celebrated the event by having their photos taken by Dunn. Several of the pictures have been mounted and now ornament the windows of some of the business houses in the city and make a very handsome advertisement.

January 1888.

How interesting on a Sunday evening to occupy a seat in church behind a couple who, realizing their dependence on one another sit, as the poet said "wrapped up in their mutual atmosphere" regardless of the gaping round world. Such was the position of ye scribe one night recently sitting behind a prep and his best girl.

The Board of Editors of the annual have at last decided upon a name for the same and have very appropriately named it "The Kaldron." The date of publication has been set as the first of June and all that is necessary to insure its success is the hearty support of all classes and individuals.

A new system of Bible study has been devised for the benefit of the wicked Hulings Hall girls. Dr. Luccock leads a class in the parlors every Sabbath evening.

February 1888.

The class in Biology organized by Prof. Montgomery at the beginning of the term meets at the sixth bell in the laboratory. Instruments have been secured by the class and an active campaign has been organized against cats and dogs of the neighborhood or any other inoffensive thing unfortunate enough to be captured.

March 1888.

The foot ball team for next season has been selected by the committee appointed for that purpose and will be substantially as follows: center rush G. H. Fuller; rushers Hawk, Laffer, Pond, Cattern, and Tomes; quarterback, E. J. Sanderson; half backs Lin Smith and F. S. Christy; full back Sisley.

A number of students are interested in cycling held a meeting last week and affected the organization of a Bicycle Club. Mr. Fetch was elected captain of the club which now numbers about a dozen of those interested in the popular sport.

COACH HERB McCRACKEN THANKS ALLEGHE FRIENDS

FORMER ATHLETIC COACH WRITES FINE SPIRITED LETTER TO CAMPUS

January 7, 1924.

Editor, the Campus,
Meadville, Pa.
Dear Sir:

I wish you would convey to the students and alumni of Allegheny, through the Campus, my sincere thanks for their encouragement and loyalty to me. My hours on the campus and in chapel with the students shall never be forgotten by me. I hope and pray it is my pleasure to meet again every student of Allegheny with whom it has been my good fortune to have been associated.

I must also say at this time that I consider the men of last year's squad the ideal type of men. They worked for me and gave me their best every day ,every game.

I shall follow Allegheny's record next year just as closely as newspaper accounts will permit me. I hope my successor will receive your continued support and enthusiasm, and may next year be even more successful than last.

Most sincerely yours,
G. HERBERT McCRACKEN.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Darling and son Richard were Sunday dinner guests at the Phi Alpha Kappa house this week.

Maria Avery was the guest of Kappa Alpha Theta this week.

Phi Alpha Kappa entertained the members of the Edinboro Normal basketball team who played in Meadville on Saturday.

Byron G. Hafer, '23, was a visitor on the Hill over the week-end.

Dr. C. F. Littell was a dinner guest at the Phi Delta Theta house last Thursday.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained the members of the Blue Ribbon Orchestra which played several parties on the Hill over the week-end.

The week-end guests at the Delta Tau Delta house were: M. E. Kofford and E. R. Davis, of Oil City; W. D. Bourquin, of Cleveland, and P. Consul, of Chicago.

Miss Lucile Baker was the week-end guest of Agnes Brown.

Among the pre-vacation visitors at Alpha Chi Rho house were Charles A. and Giles M. Bollinger, Kennedy Crumrine, '22, Charles R. Wimmer, '23, and Mr. A. A. Schutte, of Erie.

SOCIETY

Sigma Alpha Epsilon held a chapter party on Friday evening, January 11, with Professor and Mrs. H. W. Gilmer as chaperons. Music for the dance was furnished by the Blue Ribbon Synkopators, of Leechburg, Pa.

On Friday evening, January 11, Phi Delta Theta entertained with a chapter party. Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Swartley were chaperons. The music was furnished by the Powers Pep Orchestra of Titusville.

Mu Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta held its annual Fall Party on Saturday evening, January 12, at Saeger town Inn. The Blue Ribbon Synkopators furnished the music, while a novelty dance provided an interesting and diverting amusement. Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Bates were chaperons.

PHILO-FRANKLIN FORUM

Plans for a more varied type of program for the Philo-Franklin Forum were discussed at its last meeting on Friday at 4:45 in Bentley. It was planned to institute an entirely different type of program. Debate will not be stressed so much in future meetings because debate trials are over and the debating team for the year has been chosen. Consequently the interest of the student body has been shifting to subjects other than forensic activities. To keep abreast of this change of interest, the Forum plans to vary the program in the future by including at different times constructive criticism of papers and magazines such as The Campus and "Lit" Monthly. Parliamentary practice will still be prominent in the meetings but it will be treated from a different angle. Interspersed with these will be programs of a more or less humorous nature. Typical of this new kind of program is that of this week. The subject is "The Best Joke I Know." Notice of these feature programs will be posted in Bentley and Cochran Halls.

The Forum is for all male students. Notice of the type of future Forum programs is being met by enthusiastic approval of the student body, and it is to be hoped that a large number of students will attend this next meeting at 4:45 on the third floor of Bentley. WHY DON'T YOU COME?

CLASSICAL CLUB

Meeting on the evening of the first day of classes this year, the members of the Classical Club heard a very entertaining program on "Selected Myths." The program was in charge of Miss Ruth Elliott and Miss Frances Stoolfer.

STUDENT CONVENTION

ists the unification of the churches of the North and South was discussed. A committee of fifteen was elected to act on the matter. Allegheny is enjoying a special privilege in having R. Russell Denison elected as chairman of this committee.

PHI SIGMA IOTA

Phi Sigma Iota held a very important meeting December 19, at the residence of Helen Bowman. The program was in charge of Miss Kayhoe who read a paper on "Critical Notes by Pierre Lanux" and also one on "The Life and Works of Marcel Proust." The constitutional committee, consisting of John Pratt, Miss Raymond, and Miss Bowman, gave their report. The report was favorable, and Phi Sigma Iota formally adopted its constitution. The design for their pin was also definitely settled upon, and the order has been placed. The pin consists of the three superimposed Greek letters; the Phi is done in small pearls while the Sigma and Iota are done in rose gold. The pins are expected within a week.

Y. W. C. A.

Lucille Langworthy was leader of the Y. W. C. A. services which were held in the Y. rooms of Hulings Hall, Sunday evening, January 13. The leader used John 14 for the Scripture lesson. The topic of the evening was "The Ancient Egyptians' Conception of the Future Life." These people thought that the soul was destroyed with the body. Hence, great care was taken to preserve the bodies of dead Egyptians. Statutes were placed in the tombs for the use of the spirit if the body was destroyed.

THOBURN CLUB

The Thoburn Club started the new year Thursday with a short meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. room at Cochran Hall. As no program had been planned for the meeting, the Club held an open forum discussion on the subject, "Use of Later Testament Translations." Plans are being formulated to procure some outside speakers to address the Club in the near future.

helper who feels that in order to better himself in the way of mental equipment he must take advantage of every opportunity when it comes—as it does to every man. Bart seizes opportunities, and they are many and varied, and of course wins his great dream. Just how he does this fills the play with thoroughly enjoyable humor which occasionally borders on hilarity. The message is powerfully convincing. "The Tailor Made Man has had a long run in New York, Boston, and Chicago. Mr. Whitney has tried for two years to get permission to use this play and considers himself very fortunate in being able to obtain the rights.

It has been several years since the College has been entertained by a dramatic reader, and the Y. M. C. A. is gratified in being able to bring one of such merit to the students and faculty. In order that as many students as possible may go, the price of admission has been made very nominal. Fifty cents purchases any seat in the Chapel. Tickets may be procured at the door, as well as from the student committee who have been conducting a sales campaign.

The Y. M. C. A. wishes it to be understood that this number in no way interferes with the Charles Paddock program. Mr. Paddock will be here at a later date, and the course tickets will be acceptable at the time that he appears.

ALUMNI

Dorothy McClintock, wife of Walter McClintock, '07, attorney, died at the Meadville City Hospital at eight o'clock last Monday evening after a brief illness. The family home is 369 East Chestnut Street. After a short funeral service here, the body was moved to Akron, Ohio.

Martha Nebinger, '17, was married to Dr. E. Vincent Askey, '17, on July 10, 1923. Dr. and Mrs. Askey are living at 1587 West Adams Street, Los Angeles, California.

Ruth O. Seaberg, '21, is a nurse in the Buffalo General Hospital. Her home is 112 Goodrich Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Rev. M. R. Palmer, '15, has recently assumed the duties of pastor of the Southside Union Baptist Church, Pittsburgh. Rev. Mr. Palmer went to Pittsburgh after a successful pastorate of six years in the church at Castile, New York. The church of which he has assumed the pastorate has a membership of approximately four hundred and fifty.

Dr. Joseph Dixon, ex '89, and his wife (Ada M. Cook, ex '89,) are now living at 46 Knowlton Avenue, Kenmore, N. Y. Dr. Dixon is practicing dentistry in Buffalo.

On December 6th, Frank T. Stockton, '07, spoke before the annual convention of the South Dakota Farmers Grain Dealers at Mitchell. On the following day he addressed the Kiwanis Club of Wessington Springs. He spoke on some of the marketing problems of the Northwest and proposed remedies. Mr. Stockton is dean at the University of South Dakota and has been made chairman of a committee to devise a uniform plan for all the state schools with regard to entrance examinations for students coming from non-accredited high schools.

William P. Beazell, '97, is one of the speakers at the noonday institute which will be held in the Trinity Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh. The addresses are to be on present-day problems. Mr. Beazell, a former Pittsburgh newspaperman, will speak on "Public Opinion and the Press." Soon after leaving Allegheny he entered journalism in Pittsburgh and held positions on several newspapers there. He was connected with the Gazette Times for some time, was an active member of the Pittsburgh Press Club, and served as one of its directors for several years. For the past ten years he has been continuing his work in journalism in New York.

FRATERNITY TANK MEET PLANS ARE COMPLETED

GREEK MEET PROMISES TO JUDGE MATERIAL FOR VARSITY TEAM

The annual swimming meet to decide the inter-fraternity championship for 1924 will be held in the gymnasium pool on the afternoon of January 22. Seven events will constitute the program of the meet.

With an extended varsity aquatic season planned for this winter, the inter-fraternity swim will enable the coaches to get a line on the material available for a representative team. All of last year's stars, and most of the promising new men will represent their respective groups in the clash.

All fraternity entries should be handed to M. V. Wright. The list of events with the present records in each of them are as follows:

Breast stroke, 31 2-5 seconds; 40 yard dash, 20 3-5 seconds; 100 yard swim, 1 minute, 14 3-5 seconds; 160 yard swim, 2 minutes, 20 3-5 seconds; relay race, 45 3-5 seconds; plunge, 59 feet, 7 1-2 inches, fancy diving.

VARSITY SWIMMERS

burgh. As the Athletic Board will not sanction engagements with other than college teams, the team will swim in several meets as the representatives of the Meadville Athletic Club, an organization recently formed by a number of townsmen interested in all kinds of sports. East High School, of Erie, will be met in this manner on Friday afternoon, as will also the Erie Boys' Club and the Oil City Y. M. C. A., at dates still pending.

The exact makeup of the team is uncertain, but the most promising candidates for each event are as follows:

40-yd. dash, Capt. Wright, Slocum Muth.

100-yd. dash, Capt. Wright, Slocum, Ingram.

220-yd. swim, Hill, Hayes, Ingram.

Back stroke, Capt. Wright, Hill, Muth.

Breast stroke, Muth, Hill, Demmler.

Plunge, Demmler, Hill, Severn.

Fancy diving, Muth, Hayes, Slocum.

Relay, Capt. Wright, Hill, Muth, Slocum, Ingram.

All these men have had considerable swimming exprience, Wright, Demmler, and Hill being veterans here, while Muth, Hayes, Ingram, and Slocum were all scholastic stars.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL GAMES FURNISH THRILLS

FRESHMEN FLAIL JUNIORS 14-9—SOPHOMORES SLAM SENIORS 19-11

The first round of the inter-class basketball tournament, played on Saturday, January 12, resulted in victories for the teams representing the Freshman and Sophomore classes.

The game between the Juniors and the Freshmen started off in real varsity style, both teams presenting a well-nigh impregnable defense coupled with a strong passing game. The first half ended with the juniors on the long end of an 8-6 score, but numerous substitutions weakened the power of their play, and as a result the first-year men scored almost at will in the latter stages of the contest. For the Freshmen, the work of Rhodes, Stewart, and Salberg was especially good, while Muse and Myers played best for the upper-classmen. The score:

Freshmen.		Juniors.
Rhodes	F	Dale
Vigrass	F	Muse
Hubbell	C	Risher (C)
Stewart	G	Piper
Salberg (C)	G	Myers

Substitutions: McCollum for Dale, Fuller for Risher, Blackwell for Myers, Myers for McCollum, Risher for Fuller, Dale for Myers, Myers for Blackwell, Salberg for Rhodes, Rhodes for Salberg, Stewart for Vigrass, Koehl for Stewart, Kinnunen for Hubbell.

Field goals: Muse 3, Dale, Stewart 3, Vigrass, Salberg.

Foul goals: Dale 1 out of 6, Blackwell 0 out of 1, Rhodes 3 out of 5, Vigrass 0 out of 2, Kinnunen 1 out of 2.

Score: Freshmen 14; Juniors 9.

The second game of the afternoon, that between the Seniors and the Sophomores, brought two heavy teams together in a struggle which was replete with sensational basketball. Parnell scored early in the contest, and from then on the second year men were never headed. Their offense was accurate and speedy and their guarding was close; yet the Seniors were close enough at all stages of the game to break up the game, as on several occasions they threatened to do. Pratt and Wright were the stronges cogs in the 1924 machine, while the good work of the entire Sophomore team is worthy of mention, with the work of Parnell, Anderson, and Babcock standing out prominently. The score:

Riemer (C)	F	Moffat
Anderson	F	Pratt
Parnell	C	Siedle
Hobaugh	G	Wright (C)
Parker	G	Morley

Substitutions: Babcock for Riemer, Olson for Hobaugh, Robinson for Olson, Riemer for Anderson, Black for Moffatt.

Field goals: Anderson 2, Parnell 2, Babcock 2, Riemer, Olson, Wright 2, Pratt.

Foul goals: Riemer 0 out of 2, Anderson 0 out of 1, Parnell 0 out of 2, Hobaugh 1 out of 3, Parker 2 out of 3, Moffatt 1 out of 2, Pratt 2 out of 2, Siedle 1 out of 2, Morley 0 out of 1, Black 1 out of 1.

Score: Sophomores, 19; Seniors, 11.

FRATERNITY BOWLERS PREPARE FOR ACTION

FRIDAY WILL BE OPENING DAY FOR ALLEY SEASON

In accordance with the plan followed in former years, an inter-fraternity Bowling League has been formed, with representative teams from every fraternity on the Hill. The matches will be held on the Cochran Hall alleys. The alleys are in excellent shape and already considerable interest has been evinced in this popular indoor sport. Managers Vic Wright and Hubert Morley have drawn up the schedule. The first match takes place Friday between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Beta Upsilon at 4 p. m.

Last year's champions, Phi Beta Phi, will probably not be allowed to compete this year, because there has been considerable opposition to allowing the same men to bowl on two different teams. A cup will be awarded the winning team, and a prize will probably be offered to the bowler making the highest score each week, although this has not been definitely decided. A new set of rules for the conduct of the alleys has been drawn up by the managers.

Bowling Schedule

Friday, January 18—4:00 Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Beta Upsilon.

Saturday, January 19—2:00 Phi Kappa Psi vs. Delta Tau Delta. 4:00, Phi Delta Theta vs. Phi Gamma Delta.

Monday, January 21—4:00 Phi Alpha Kappa vs. Alpha Chi Rho.

Tuesday, January 22—4:00 Faculty vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon. 7:00 Beta Upsilon vs. Phi Kappa Psi.

WEST VA. 47—ALLEGHENY 28.

29-19, with six minutes to go. In a great spurt, Allegheny gathered eleven points to Pittsburgh's six in these final minutes, leaving five points as the Panther's final margin.

Lineup and summary:

Allegheny 30.		Pittsburgh 35.
Ross (C)	F	Bohren
McClurg	F	Levinson
Judd	C	Chase
Wolf	G	King
Shultz	G	Parsons

Substitutions: Capt. Carr for Parsons, Brown for Bohren, Melvin for Chase, Chase for Melvin, Bohren for Brown.

Field goals: King 5, Levinson 3, Bohren 2, Chase, Carr; Judd 5, Ross 2, Wolf.

Foul goals: Pitt 11 out of 20; Allegheny 14 out of 22.

Time of halves: 20 minutes.

Referee: Beggs Snyder.

Presenting a floor team of five big men, all stars, who exhibited a whirlwind attack and a sterling defense, the Mountaineers of West Virginia, on their own floor, topped the Allegheny quintet in an interesting game, 47-28. Handicapped by the small floor and the inability to get the tipoff, the Blue and Gold fought hard but could not stem the Niagara of field goals dropping into the Mountaineer basket.

For the Mountaineers, Funke and Hawley, especially, starred, the former having seven field goals, the latter dropping in five. McClurg led for Allegheny, getting four, Ross and Judd each garnering a couple.

Allegheny 28.		West Va. 47.
Ross (C)	F	(C) Hill
McClurg	F	Funke
Judd	C	Hawley
Wolf	G	Bowers
Shultz	G	Rohrbaugh

Substitutions: Allegheny—Fries for Ross, Hartman for Shultz, Pease for McClurg, Dale for Pease; West Virginia—Murrin for Funke, Oliker for Rohrbaugh, Graham for Hawley, Bradford for Bowers, Bartel for Hill, Titley for Graham, Byers for Titley, Richmond for Byers.

Field goals: McClurg 4, Ross 2, Judd 2, Funke 7, Hawley 5, Bowers 2, Rohrbaugh 2, Graham, Bartell.

Foul goals: Allegheny, 12 out of 22; West Virginia, 11 out of 18.

Referee, Bolster.
