Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th St.,
New York City.

My dear friend:-

This is to inform you that I am retiring from all Lyceum and Chautauqua activities. Mr. Alber and our former associates will conduct the business as formerly in the offices at Cleveland, Chicago, Boston and Pittsburgh. Miss Barnette and Mr. Cable and their office assistants will be at the old stand in Cleveland.

In retiring from the business, I have been so closely connected with and for which I have given my best thought, strength and endeavor for a quarter of a century, I can only leave it with feelings of sadness along with those of satisfaction. I have been able to succeed only through the loyalty and extreme painstaking work of those associated with me. Especially the field workers and platformists. You have always played your part admirably and with great helpfulness, not only to our organization but the institution in general.

May our friendship last throughout the years to come, and you continue as loyal and successful in your chosen field as you have been in the service with me.

Your sincere friend,

Arthur C. Coit
