

The general feeling this month was well expressed by a Vermontian in N.Y. who declared there was just one way to get a settlement that - was by one side or other getting whipped" Tribune April 15. N.Y.

He had no official information up to 11 p.m. of the 12th of what had occurred in Charleston ^{only private telegrams} had fallen. Says ~~Tribune~~ ^{Associated} Press correspondent letter of April 13. a.m. on that night according to his speech to the Committee ~~from~~ ^{for} a Conference made between 8 & 9. morning of the 13th - (Tribune)

The same letter (Trib.) says "The president is calm & composed. The first question he asked a Western Senator last night was, 'Will your state support me with military power?'"
