Miss Ida Tarbell
New York City

Dear Miss Tarbell:

In accordance with my custom of writing authors and speakers who have regaled me, this note is indited with the thought of expressing my keen delight in not only your speech last night at the National Arts Club, but also the keen appreciation accorded you by the audience.

How wonderful age is or would be, if all octogenarians could be like you! Awaiting that book you mentioned that should be the best yet, I am

Sincerely,

Miss Geneva F. Hoult
