Dear Edna:

I am glad that you and Mr. Beazell think it is best to take this copy at $40.00. I enclose a letter from Mr. Coleman just received and he thinks that is the best thing to do.

Mrs. Wolfe is asking Barnett and Patton to send on the book for inspection. If you and Mr. Beazell will look it over when it arrives and keep it if you approve I will appreciate it.

I am going away for ten days or two weeks so the book will probably come while I am gone. Mrs. Wolfe will get in touch with you when it arrives.

I am enclosing a little contribution to the New York Alumni Scholarship Fund. I understand that you are the Treasurer. Isn't it fine about the Robertson check. I never dreamed we would get off with that dinner for less than $4.00. That leaves us a nice balance.

Love to you - see you when I come back.
