Dear Mr. Goodell:

Pardon me for having delayed so long in thanking you for the marked copy of the Edinboro Independent, a lively little newspaper let me say in passing. Mr. Culbertson, to whom you say gave the material for the flattering item you publish about my birthplace, also sent me a copy.

Of course I am gratified by your suggestion that a marker be put at my birthplace, but are you and Mr. Culbertson sure that anybody will be going out of his way to look up such a marker or that those who pass it as they drive by will know what it's all about? But if you think it worthwhile that it be done I shall, of course, as I said be proud, and if I can give you any help as to names and dates desired, please call on me.

Sincerely yours,

INT/MMS
