Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th St., New York City.
My dear Miss Tarbell:

I was delighted, on my return from Europe, to learn through my daughter that you were to pay a tribute to my mother at the centennial luncheon, which will be held at the Hotel Astor at one o'clock on Saturday, October 30th. I am asking my secretary to enclose in this letter a ticket for the guests' table.

The program will be out in a few days and I will then send you a copy. Because of the many friends who wish to speak on this occasion, the time of each speaker will have to be limited to ten minutes. I am sorry that the time is so short.

Believe me,

Very cordially yours,

Harriet Stanton Blatch
