UNAVOIDABLE DELAY.

The Staff feels that some explanation is due the students for the late appearance of this issue. When it was found impossible to have the paper ready for Tuesday morning all arrangements were made to have it on hand at Chapel Wednesday.

On account of the interference of Monday classes it may be necessary to change the date of publication from Tuesday to Wednesday.

Read your home paper.—Trace's will deliver it.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. held its first meeting of the new year on Sunday evening in the Association room. The subject was, "Wishing and Willing," which was ably and interestingly discussed by the leader, Miss Florence Miller, '21.

Greetings by Local Pastors

SERIES OF NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS BROUGHT TO COLLEGE IN CHAPEL SERMONS LAST WEEK.

Greetings of the New Year were brought to the student body of Allegheny College last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings at the Ford Chapel by three well known pastors of Meadville.

The Reverend Traub delivered a strong sermon on the responsibilities of the students to society. He declared that college students who neglected to pay their debt to society did not apply the principles of education for the benefit of humanity.

The second New Year's greeting to the students was given by Dr. R. L. Foulke, of the "Stone" Church, on Thursday morning.

Declaring that the period of reconstruction when we are endeavoring to build up a world of justice and righteousness was more critical than the period of destruction.

Mr. Nichols stated that we were still confronted with serious problems resulting from the war and that the successful outcome of them depended entirely on the way we were determined to solve these questions.

Bowling Alleys Open

COCHRAN HALL ALLEYS OPENED UNDER AUSPICES OF Y. M. C. A. TOURNAMENT IN VIEW.

The bowling alleys, located in the basement of Cochran Hall, were thrown open to the students last week. That the fellows are certainly patronizing this form of amusement can be shown by the fact that a large number of boys participated in some bowling matches.

The bowling alleys this year will be under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. They will be open daily from 4 to 8 P. M., and on Saturdays from 1 to 8 P. M.

Interfraternity bowling matches will undoubtedly be resumed this season as they have been in past years.

DR. DARLING WRITES INTERESTING ARTICLE

In American Journal of Public Health.

Dr. Chester A. Darling, Professor of Biology, has an intensely interesting article on the influenza epidemic in the current number of the American Journal of Public Health.

The article has been reprinted in pamphlet form and can now be procured at the Library.

CLASSICAL CLUB.

At an interesting meeting of Classical Club the busts and friezes found in the club rooms were explained.

Lit Monthly Out Jan. 15

ANNOUNCEMENT OF YEAR'S PLANS—LIT NAMES WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY AS "FRESHMEN QUILL DAYS."

The Allegheny Literary Monthly, through its Editor, Miss Ruth Miller, '19, issues an urgent appeal to all students to make some contributions to the "Lit." Freshmen, especially, are strongly urged to contribute any stories, poems, essays, jokes, or any other literary material before January 10.

Elaborate plans are underway to make the Allegheny Literary Monthly one of the most popular and classical college magazines in the State.

The first meeting of the Forum was held in the Philo-Franklin Hall at three thirty Friday afternoon.

The "Lit" will surpass all previous efforts. Give your support to it. Write for it! Subscribe for it! Read it! Keep it!

CLASSES CHANGED TO NORMAL.

Here is another instance which reveals the fact that things are gradually working back to the accustomed forms "before the war."

While the college was under military control it was necessary, because of various reasons, that classes begin at 7:40 A. M.

On Thursday, January 2, many astonished students were aroused by the ringing of the bell at 7:30 A. M.

WAR RELIEF WORK.

A War Relief Committee composed of the Misses Virginia Lewis, '19, Chairman; Lucile Richard, '19; Meredyth Neale, '19; Kathryn Carroll, '20; Marguerite Diefenderfer, '20, and Ethel Powney, '21, has been appointed by the Women's Student Senate.

Allegheny Wins Praise

PITTSBURGH PAPERS PAY TRIBUTE TO REPUTATION OF ALLEGHENY'S BASKET BALL TEAMS.

All the Pittsburgh papers of last Sunday praised Allegheny's basketball team. The Pittsburgh Press, the Post, and the Gazette-Times referred to the Allegheny team as one of the "high class and most desirable fives in the country."

The following is an excerpt from the Pittsburgh Press: Allegheny has not played in Washington for a number of years.

Allegheny has not played in Washington for a number of years. The Meadville college always has a high class five and frequently wins the championship.

First Forum Meeting

PHILO-FRANKLIN FORUM ORGANIZES FOR THE YEAR. ALL INTERESTED IN DEBATE URGED TO ATTEND.

The first meeting of the Forum was held in the Philo-Franklin Hall at three thirty Friday afternoon.

The first debate will be held at the next meeting which is scheduled for four-thirty next Friday afternoon.

For the benefit of new students it may be said that the Forum is a college organization open to all students who are interested in public speaking and debate.

SOLDIERS IN HOSPITALS NEED CURRENT MAGAZINES

Don't Stop Putting One Cent Stamps on the Periodicals You Have Finished With—They Are Badly Wanted.

Wounded men in hospitals and soldiers in cantonments awaiting demobilization need magazines more than ever, according to reports received by the American Library Association.

Whenever you put a one cent stamp on a magazine and drop it into a mail box, it quickly gets into the hands of these men, who need this sort of reading matter very much.

It is such a very little thing for anyone to do, just to put a one-cent stamp on the notice which is printed on the cover of every periodical published in America.

R. O. T. C. Plan Abandoned

ONLY ONE-THIRD REQUIRED NUMBER OF VOTES OBTAINED. R. O. T. C. NOT PROVING POPULAR ELSEWHERE.

Only 34 students of this college voted for the establishing of an R. O. T. C. unit here at the vote taken in Chapel last Thursday morning.

In thus turning down the R. O. T. C. Allegheny is in line with the eastern colleges, Yale being the only one which has voted for a unit.

New Courses To Be Given

FINAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW COURSES TO BE OFFERED. YEAR'S CREDITS ASSURED TO S. A. T. C.

The readjustment of courses for the second semester, caused by the abolishment of the S. A. T. C., has been completed.

There are many courses offered for the Freshmen as well as upper classmen for February 4.

The courses in English I and French I are so arranged that the work will practically cover the normal course given at the beginning of the academic year.

For the upper classmen, the following courses which will begin at the opening of the second term, will also be offered:

- Biology II—1 hour—Hereditry.
Biology IV—4 hours—Comparative Anatomy (if reasonable demand).
Biology XI—1 hour—Sanitation.
Economics II—3 hours—Applied Economics.
Economics VI—2 hours—Labor Problems.
Education II—3 hours—Secondary Education.
English III—2 hours—Literature.
English IV—3 hours—Nineteenth Century Poets.
English V—2 hours—American Literature.
Greek I—2 hours—Special Reading Course.
History VI—2 hours—Advanced American History.
Philosophy I—3 hours—Logic.
Philosophy V—3 hours—Ethics.
Philosophy VIII—2 hours—Current Philosophical Tendencies.
Physics IV—3 hours—Physical Measurements.
Physics VII—3 hours—Electrical Measurements.
Physics VIII—3 hours—Direct and Alternating Currents.
Political Science IV—3 hours—Principles of Political Science.
Political Science VI—2 hours—International Law.

Dr. Coburn, who was granted a leave of absence last Spring, has been religious director at Camp Hancock, Georgia. He will probably not take up his work here before next Fall.

EDITORIAL.

The Editor again calls attention to the opening of competition for the Campus Staff, starting with this issue of the paper. If you are at all interested in newspaper work, begin now reporting for the Campus and determine to have your name among those announced on the new Staff next May. Freshman, here is your opportunity to enter college activities, and take a share in the extra-curricular work of the college. Competition starts with this issue. Now is the time to begin.

For several years there has been talk of reorganizing the college orchestra, which, though active and very popular several years ago, has been non-existent of late. This year, it seems, there is plenty of excellent material for such an orchestra, an orchestra which would be of credit to Allegheny. Why should there not be such an organization? Let some musically inclined Alleghenian start the ball a rolling.

With the first meeting of the Philo Franklin Forum last week, Allegheny's debating activities were begun with a fair representation of the debating interests of the college. For the benefit of the Freshmen, unacquainted with the Forum, it may be said that this society is the official debating organization of the college, and that membership is open to any college man interested in this type of activity. The Forum has as its object the promotion of interest in debate, the selection of class and varsity debaters, and the general training of its members. To the amateur, the Forum affords an excellent opportunity to gain valuable experience both in debate work and in speaking before an audience. To the debater, the Forum presents a field in which to improve, and a testing ground upon which to compete for college teams. Debating, in Allegheny, is a branch of college activity which must be kept on a high level, and the men who will uphold Allegheny's honor in debating circles are those who will, by constant effort in the Forum, attain the highest degree of excellence. Freshmen especially should attend the Forum meetings, and there should be a good representation at the next meeting, announced elsewhere in this paper.

It is to be hoped that with the return to the regular scholastic year, Allegheny's band will be reorganized to develop into as splendid an organization as the S. A. T. C. military band. The fine work of the military band was concluded by the splendid concert given before the demobilization of the training unit, and that concert proved to everyone that Allegheny can have a band to be proud of. Much of the talent represented in the military band is still in the college and there is no reason why Allegheny should not be represented in the musical field in this way. In the past the band has added a musical touch to basket ball games, playing before each game and aiding the Freshmen's snake dance between halves with college airs. There are many other occasions in which the band could take an active part and the pep added to rallies, sings and other gatherings of the sort by the presence of the band more than repays the work connected with it. May Allegheny be represented by a band that will be on hand for every occasion!

COLLEGE LIBRARY NEWS.

Large Number of New Books Added to College Library Since October 1st. Oxford Dictionary Purchased.

The Library has been open sixty hours a week as compared with fifty-four and one-half hours a week in other years in order to meet the needs of the new regime. The Sunday afternoon privileges and the two added evenings a week seem to have met the need of many.

The list of new books given below has in it one very notable purchase from the Lucy Prindle Fotee Fund. This is the Oxford Dictionary edited by Sir James Murray, in sixteen volumes. This is the greatest dictionary in the English language and probably in any language and a valuable addition to the reference department. A number of sets have been added from the William Davis Fund and a valuable set of fifteen volumes for the Greek and Latin departments consisting of translations of the classics.

The following books have been purchased since October 1:

- Tennyson, Poetical Works, 2 copies.
- Wm. Davis Fund—Lockhart, Life of Scott, 5 vols.; Bronte Sisters, Works, 6 vols.; Lane, editor, Arabian Nights, 4 vols.; Maynaider, G. H., Smollett, 6 vols.; Dunbar, Poems of Cabin and Field; Malory, Le Morte d' Arthur; Mason, editor, Ancassin and Nicolette; Guest, editor, Mabinogion.

- Payne, Bjornstjerne.
- Melville, Thackeray Country.
- Carroll, Hunting up the Snark.
- Gould, Brownings and America.
- Tolstol, Light that Shines in Darkness.
- Melville, Life and Letters of Wm. Beckford.
- Perry, Whittier Sketch of Life.
- Hamilton, Memoirs of Count Gramont.

- Huchon, George Cable and His Times.
- Otis, American Verse.
- Ralfe, Life of Wm. Shakespeare.
- Lang, Literary London.
- Rosette, Comedy.
- Defoe, Life of Colonel Jack.
- Whitman, Drury in Canada.
- Cowper, Complete Works.
- Bunyon, Life and Death of Mr. Badman.
- Horstman, Richard Rolle of Ham-pole
- Fagnet, Initiation into Literature.
- Whitman, Leaves of Grass.

- Chitwood, The Immediate Cause of Great War.
- Perry, The Present Conflict of Ideals.

Radzwill, Rasputin and Russian Revolution.
Adams, Lee at Appomattox.
Haynes, Charles Sumner.
Woodburn and Moran, The Citizen of Republic.
Vinogradoff, The Russian Problem.
Classics, Greek, 7 Vols.
Classics, Latin, 8 Vols.

The return of the old regime wherein the students are seated by classes, instead of companies, has brought a marked increase in chapel attendance. Addresses by the pastors of the city have made these services well worth attending—Rev. Traum, of the Christian Church, spoke Wednesday, Rev. Foulke, of Stone Church, Thursday, and Rev. Nichols, of Congregational Church, Friday.

It is interesting to note the number of men from other educational institutions throughout the country who were in the service of our nation in the late war. The number of men from the University of California who enlisted between January 10, 1918, and August 31, 1918, is as follows:
Army, Navy, etc. 889
Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., etc. 225

LIEUTENANT HUTCHEON RETURNS TO MEADVILLE

Former Allegheny Student Returns to United States After Having Been a Prisoner in the German Army.

Within the past week Lieutenant Allen G. Hutcheon, ex-'19, who enlisted in the Canadian Artillery, returned to the United States after having been a prisoner in Germany since the German drive of last April.

Lieutenant Hutcheon was located along the Belgian Front at Ypres when he was captured. At this time hundreds of other French and English soldiers were taken prisoner. They were immediately taken back several miles from the front where they were kept. He states that they were really better cared for than one would expect. This was largely due to the fact that he was an officer. However, he says that one was barely able to keep from starvation. The daily ration consisted of several slices of bread and turnip soup. They were cared for fairly well when one considers the poor food conditions for the German people themselves.

Mr. Hutcheon states that the German people are not aware of the fact that they have been defeated, but that on the other hand they are welcoming back the returning troops. He says in all parts of Germany he had been in there were banners on which there was the inscription, "Welcome, victorious soldiers."

Mr. Hutcheon expects his commission as First Lieutenant in February when he will have his eighteen months as Second Lieutenant.

Lieutenant Hutcheon is one of the many men of Allegheny who has had such thrilling experiences, and from now on other men will probably return with tales equally interesting. However, it is not likely that any of them have had the misfortune of being a prisoner.

Keep's is best place to come. Everything new.

AMERICAN PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

Allegheny College Represented by Dr. F. G. Henke.

The annual meeting of the American Philosophical Association was held in Emerson Hall of Harvard University, on December 27, 28, 1918. The principal topic of the convention was "Vitalism Versus Mechanism." Allegheny College was represented in the convention in the person of Dr. F. G. Henke, of the Department of Philosophy and Education. Dr. Henke addressed the assembly on the subject, "The Psychology of Vitalism."

Other speakers were: Prof. H. S. Jennings, of the Department of Biology at Johns Hopkins. Prof. L. J. Henderson, of the Department of Chemistry at Harvard. Prof. H. C. Warren, of the Department of Psychology at Princeton. Prof. W. T. Marvin, of the Department of Philosophy at Rutgers.

The members of the Association are elected. The territory of the Association is the National Boundary but the majority of the members are from the eastern states. About 65 were in attendance.

LAST MONDAY CHAPEL.

One of the most interesting chapel services of the year was held on Monday, January 6, 1919. As has been the custom thus far this year, the students and faculty assembled at the appointed time for the daily chapel service. President Crawford was not present at the first but was soon notified and then appeared. He explained that no preparation had been made for the meeting as he had intended that Monday chapel services should be discontinued but that he had neglected to announce it.

As the President had no special message to present, he called on the male members of the faculty who were present for a few remarks. Dr. Akers, Dr. Darling, Dr. Swartly, Dr. Lee, and Dr. Ross responded in a very interesting manner. It thus seems probable that Monday chapel services have left the College until some other "partner of God" starts another war.

Y. M. C. A.

On Thursday evening, January 3, the regular college meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held. After a short song service led by Mr. Hammon, '19, a business discussion was held to decide what the work of the college Y. M. C. A. should be in the future. Dr. Darling then took charge of the meeting, and gave a report of the recent convention held at Yonkers, New York. He stated that the Y. M. C. A. had six different fields to cover—the hygienic, the economic, the educational, the social, the moral, and the religious.

After different persons expressed their opinions Doctor Elliott had each man signify which of these fields he would be interested in. It will thus be possible to appoint committees, and have men on them that will be interested in that sort of work.

The tables are to be left in the rooms so that different games can be played there during recreation hours. It was decided that later bowling tournaments should be held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. It was also suggested that an Employment Bureau be established in order to secure employment for the new men of the college who desire to work during their spare time. With these splendid opportunities the work of the Y. M. C. A. should be a sure success throughout the coming year.

On account of the absence of Messrs. Stetson, '19, Booth, '20, and Brown, '20, of the Y. M. C. A. Staff, three men were elected to fill these vacancies temporarily. The men elected were G. R. Barr, '19, R. L. Faulkner, '19, and F. H. Hammon, '19. The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, January eighth, at 7 o'clock.

Mlle. SABALOT TO CONDUCT
FRENCH CLASS AT Y. W. C. A.

Mlle. F. Sabalot, Allegheny's French student, is conducting a French class, which was recently organized, at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters in Meadville, every Tuesday evening. Mlle. Sabalot will undoubtedly have a large class at the Y. W. C. A. as there is an excellent opportunity for any one to attain the French language from a native. There is no doubt in the minds of Allegheny students that Mlle. Sabalot will make good with her French class conducted at the Y. W. C. A.

Special Dinners and Luncheons served on order at Tea Room.

Harvard University admits without examination on January 2, of this year, students who can show a good scholastic record in preparatory school before the war. These are to be called unclassified students. Their future classification will depend upon their past records and upon the records that they make in the future. There will be four terms given before the opening in the Fall. The first term begins January 2 and lasts until March 20. The second term begins March 28 and continues until Commencement, June 19. The first summer term begins on the first of July and proceeds until August 9. The second summer term then will start and will close September 13. In this manner Harvard expects to clear up the confusion caused by the war.

The number of men who were in the S. A. T. C. at Allegheny appears good when compared with the percentage of men at Hamilton College who enrolled in the Student Army Training Corps. Out of a total enrollment of 250, there were 85 men who were not in the S. A. T. C. This left only 174 who were in the S. A. T. C.

237 men in the Army and Navy and regular service who have given their lives for their country is the record of Harvard University. Besides these men there were in auxiliary service such as Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., etc., 24 men who gave their lives. The total casualty list for Harvard University thus becomes 261.

Merl Smith, '20, visited the House last Saturday and says he is planning to return to school next term.

C. W. Spangle, '18, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia and pleurisy, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home, though he is still suffering from the after-effects.

"Doc" Skinner, '20, has left his bride of three months for a few days to renew his acquaintances with his Alma Mater.

Clair Brockway, '15, writes from France that he has gone through the war without a scratch.

The Annual Initiation Banquet was held in the House Saturday evening.

J. B. Rusterholz, ex-'19, of Erie, was a visitor at the House over the week-end.

COCHRAN HALL OPEN.

Men's Dormitories Both in Running Order Again.

Since the holidays the college has rapidly been assuming the old aspect of normal times and by the beginning of the second semester nothing will remain to show that college life was ever disturbed by the introduction of the military regime.

During vacation, Cochran Hall was put in shape to meet the requirements of a college dormitory. Some new furniture has been secured for the first floor, the front hall of which has been made very attractive by the addition of a large center table. Although the number of Freshman men enrolled far exceeds any previous enrollment in the history of the college by the opening of the guest suite and the judicious use of the other accommodations the men have been very satisfactorily taken care of in Cochran Hall and the Annex.

The commissary department at the Hall remains in the hands of H. O. Holcomb, who managed that department for the whole college during the days of the S. A. T. C.

The brief Christmas vacation was made even shorter for most of the upper classmen, many of whom returned to school early and have been working hard to put the fraternity houses in proper conditions. This work is by this time mostly completed and the damage wrought by making use of the houses as barracks has been effaced, though at the cost of much expense and labor.

Most significant of all the changes which have marked the return to normal college life is the reappearance of the familiar faces of those students who have returned from the various war activities in which they have been engaged. Allegheny has been represented in every department of military activity. Many more have made arrangements to return for the second semester.

UNION MEETING OF THE ASSOCIATIONS.

New Year's night the two Associations held a union meeting in the Chapel. Dr. Elliott had charge of the meeting, which was conducted something after the plan of the Thanksgiving Service. After a song service, in charge of Mr. Hammond, '19, Dr. Elliott read the Scripture and then asked a number of people to tell one of their personal resolutions for the coming year. This was followed by a series of resolutions which were thought to be needed by us as a student body.

Miss Ruth Miller, '19, and Mr. Justin Williams, '21, each added much to the meeting by singing a solo.

It is hoped that after the reorganization of the Y. M. C. A. the men of the college will take a new interest and support the work more.
