October 10, 1933

Dear Miss Carroll:

Enclosed is the Lincoln article we talked of. I hope you will like it, of course, and you know—again of course—that if there is any point where you think it can be improved I shall be glad to do my best.

Won't you tell Mr. Graeve that I was delighted to find his new book on my table and I am going to read it at once.

With all good wishes

Very sincerely
