Maurois

May 23, 1933

Dear Rutger:

Mrs. Carter writes me from Henry Street Settlement-

"Of course we'll be delighted to have Mr. Maurois at Henry Street in June any time that suits him. We'll have a little dinner for him and will all give him all the time he wishes. When you get back to town I'll see you and we can arrange everything."

You will know how much of this you will want to accept for Mr. Maurois. I rather think there is no surer and pleasanter way of getting what he is after.

I have written Jane Addams but have not heard from her.

Affectionately

Mr. Rutger Jewett
