Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you very much for your note of August 20th which I fear I have been somewhat remiss in answering.

We have not set a definite date for THE NATIONALIZING OF BUSINESS but we hope to publish it either the last of October or early in November. Our plan at the present time is to bring it out with a special trade jacket which will give it a little more appeal, I hope, than if it were brought out in the regular series. We shall later transfer it to the regular series.

You receive, under the terms of the contract, six copies of the book and if there are half a dozen other people whom you feel should receive copies, won't you send me a list of them some time between now and the publication date, and I shall see that they go out?

I hope to be seeing you soon in New York and learn of the progress you have been making on the autobiography. In the meantime, I hope you have had a very good summer.

Cordially yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
