Dear Madame,

I have to acknowledge with thanks your cheque for Lire 244.70 in payment of your account. We had already sent off your bag to the above address(given to us by Miss Louise Jackson) on September 22nd., but we have just had a notice from the Milan courrier that the parcel was sent to the Banca Commerciale in Milan as you had left Rome before it's arrival. We were rather concerned at this as we had no other address for you. So you can judge how relieved we are to hear from you , we have already requested the Milancourrier to return us the parcel, asx soon as it arrives we will send it on to you at Rome.

We note your order for the two book covers,& hope to be able to let y you have them in good time.

With regret s for the mistake over the parcel,

Yours very truly,

Aurelio Durst
