fusion - a three-headed fusion (see Oldroyd)

The American theory of forming a cabinet:

1. Represent various parts of the country.
2. Support platforms.
3. Able men.
4. Consolidate factions
5. friends & 1

From Hon. J. M. Hammond, to Francis Pickens

Ms. A. 1. 1. 1.

Washington, April 19, 1860.

There might be with us commotion for a time, but cotton, rice, tobacco, and naval stores commanded the world; and we have sense enough to know it, and are sufficiently Teutonic to carry it out successfully. The North, without us, would be a motherless calf, bleating about, and die of mangle and starvation.

The univocal materialism of it. Even cotton, rice & tobacco cannot overrule command right - justice & freedom.
