OFFICE OF THE EDITOR

8 ARLINGTON STREET
BOSTON, MASS.

The Atlantic Monthly

17 September, 1928.

Dear Miss Tarbell:—

The aid and comfort you gave me the other day are warmly appreciated.

I have just received a telegram saying that the original material has been shipped from the Pacific Coast. I shall by the end of this week, therefore, be in a position to pursue my researches.

Whenever you are able to send me the material you spoke of, I shall be most happy to have it. Will you please let me know also to whom I should write in Decatur, Illinois, and just what I may hope to get from there.

In accordance with your suggestion, I am writing this morning to the City Clerks of Joplin and St. Jo.

Can you refer me to any authentic book showing Lincoln's connection with John Calhoun? Are there other letters available between the two? I am sending to the library this morning to secure all the volumes containing facsimile reproductions of letters of the two periods, 1835 and 1848.

With hearty regards, believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Ellery Sedgwick.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

PS/ As I sign this your package comes. So many thanks. 18-19.28

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library