Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

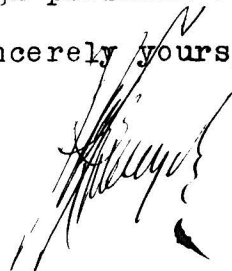

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

At the risk of intruding on your very much preoccupied time I am going to inquire whether or not you have ever done anything further in re. my Lincoln Picture.
You will remember some months ago you thought you might possibly write an article for the New Jersey Historical Magazine if you were given sufficient time to do so at your leisure.

I recently had an inquiry as to whether or not you were still of the same mind and if any article of that kind might be forthcoming to the publishers of the magazine.

With high personal regards.

Very sincerely yours,

Will run away all fall - very busy - but hope to be able in a few weeks cannot promise exactly
