"I suggest the following persons as possible investigators for the study you propose making in England:

Miss Mary B MacArthur, Secretary
British Women's Trade Union League
Dilke House, London, England

Miss Margaret Bondfield,
Dilke House,
London, England

Miss Sophie Sanger,
International Labor Organization
Sunderland House, Curzon Street, W.1
London, England

Miss Constance Smith
British Home Office
London, England

I shall be glad to have you use any article from the Monthly Labor Review, provided due credit is given to that publication and to the authors of the articles

Cordially yours
