Alumni Trustees

Newest Project in the Management of the College.

There is widespread interest in the action of the Board of Trustees taken at the last annual meeting looking towards alumni representation. The alumni have been urging this matter for some time. It looks now as if they were going to get what they want. The trustees could take no final action without the consent of the patronizing conferences, as the conferences, through the Joint Board of Control, have the right of nomination, but their action made it very clear what the sentiment of the trustees is. They wanted to give the alumni representation, but as they could not do it without conference action they sent a proposition to the four patronizing conferences suggesting a plan by which the alumni could have what they asked for. Three of the conferences, the East Ohio, the West Virginia and the Pittsburg unanimously endorsed the trustee proposition. The Erie conference postponed action for one year. It seems to be taken for granted, however, that the Erie conference at its next session will endorse the plan. In case this is done, the joint Board of Control will be abolished and instead the Pittsburg conference will be given the right to name eight trustees, the Erie conference eight, and the alumni eight, each of the trustees so named holding office for four years. This will give to the alumni and the two patronizing conferences—the East Ohio and West Virginia having withdrawn—a majority of the elective trustees.

President Crawford has received many letters from prominent alumni expressing their appreciation of the action of the trustees. The new order of things when it goes into effect will be gratefully received by all of Allegheny's loyal alumni, who will be more loyal than ever when they have direct and active participation in the management of their Alma Mater.

Freshmen Outclass Opponents and Win Class Contest.

CLOSE CONTEST EXPECTED

Rooters from Grove City Expect to Outcheer Allegheny, While the Red and White Team is Confident of Victory.

Allegheny rooters will have to turn out in full force this afternoon if the victory is to come here. Grove City has arranged for a special train over the Bessemer to bring at least one hundred and fifty rooters and a band with their team. It will be disgraceful if Allegheny is out-rooted on their own gridiron in the way that Grove City was last year. Those who attended last year's game remember that the rooting of the Allegheny enthusiasts was the only exciting feature of the game.

The new cheer leader should be a stimulus for good cheering. As is mentioned in another colum, C. E. Hilborn, '11, will make his debut this afternoon in that capacity. It is hoped that two hundred men will be in front of Bentley for the parade. The course will, as usual, be down the main streets and thence to the field. If all these men will stick together, good cheering is assured.

The impression made in the minds of the students as well as players last year when Grove City won over Allegheny by the tremendous score of 54 to 0 still remains and the thought of that game will be in the minds of everyone at the game today. The players are filled with an unconquerable determination to come back up the hill with a victory. The game will doubtless be strenuous and neither side will find an easy victim.

The Grove City team has played four games thus far and won all. The first was with an alumni team. Since then then have defeated the Oil City Y. M. C. A. 28 to 0, New Brighton 28 to 0, and Carnegie Tech 16 to 3. According to press reports, the team has been considerably strengthened since last year. They have a new full back named Daniel Boone to whom the Pittsburg sport writers gave credit for having played the best game against Tech. Other stars on their squad are Lamb, the big two hundred-pound six-footer, Marks and Simon.

The local squad is in excellent condition for the game. Johnson, who was held out of the last game because of an injury to his shoulder, has been out for scrimmage practice for several days past and will likely participate in part of the game. Coach Stewart seems to think that today's contest will be one of the most gruelling ones of the season, but he looks for his bunch to show the Grove City eleven a few things about the game. He said recently: "I won't be quoted in saying that we're going to beat them. The only thing I will say is that they won't come within ten points of making the score they did against us last year. They have a strong squad and don't have any thought but that they will beat us. You know they are coming with a hundred and fifty rooters and a band besides twenty players."

The Grove City team is heavy and if the field is in a wet or muddy condition the advantage will lie with them, but if it is dry and hard, Captain Lavely's team will be at least equal to their opponents.

L. E.—Hawk.
L. T.—Kennedy.
L. G.—C. Dotterrer.
C.—Abbott.
R. G.—Ball, Sheffer.
R. T.—Brigham, Zelwis.
R. E.—Townsend.
L. H.—Lavely, Ballinger.
R. H.—Perley, Johnson.
L. F.—Miller, Leffel.
R. F.—W. Dotterrer.

Literary Lights

Quill Clubbers Spend a Busy and Profitable Evening Last Monday.

The Quill Club met in the club's room in the Library on Monday evening, twenty-four members responding to roll call. The first part of the evening was taken up with a discussion of the amendments to the constitution as recommended by a committee appointed for that purpose. They were passed as presented.

H. S. Leitzel, '12, and Miss Katherine Wheeling, '12, were elected members of the club. H. M. Weeter, '11, was ratified as a member ex-officio, he being the correspondent of the Tri-State Press Bureau.

After the business of the meeting was completed a literary program, having student literary and journalistic interests as the general theme, was carried out. Dr. Lockwood, in speaking of "Journalistic and Literary Interests in the English Universities," contrasted the conditions there with those in this country. Professor Swartley's topic was "Journalistic and Literary Interests in the American Universities." It was a clever summing up of student activities at his Alma Mater, the University of Pennsylvania. Professor Trexler said that such a thing as "Journalistic and Literary Interests in the German Universities" was unknown, as the students do not have any active connection with the institutions.

"The Campus" was the subject of a semi-humorous article by Thomas Hughes. In his introduction he spoke of the two "Campuses," one of Allegheny College and one of Hulings Hall, commenting on the utility of each. His plans and suggestions for a Campus were of great value. Miss Loane, in a witty way, told the "Lit"

A GLORIOUS VICTORY

Geneva Completely Outclassed in a Brilliant Game Last Saturday —Lavely, Perley, Hawk, Townsend and Kennedy Star.

Geneva's pennant aspirations were demolished Saturday afternoon when Allegheny defeated the Beaverites 22 to 0 in a football game replete with the most sensational runs and plays seen in Meadville for years. At no time in the 50 minutes of play could Geneva's heavy line men cause Allegheny's nervy little team to yield an inch, and the visitors did not become dangerous.

Allegheny's scores were made in the first, third and fourth periods. The open game was used almost exclusively by the local team and Geneva was caught standing up most of the time. Both teams punted frequently Hawk's long spirals proving elusive to the visiting backfield. The Geneva players and Coaches Parks and McKean were at a loss to understand the unexpected defeat, but handed the gold and blue eleven due credit for a great game.

The interference made for the Allegheny runners by their team-mates was the finest that could be formed. Several times, once for a touchdown, the intereference carried the man far up the field.

Every man played a consistent game. The whole lineup was made up of star players. The work of the linemen was a strong factor in the final result of the game. Several sensational plays, however, featured in the contest.

Hawk and Townsend were two of the brilliant lights. Twice Hawk was able to bring a punt from the center of the field to the ten yard line by means of the path made by "Townie." "Louie" also made a seventy yard run for a touchdown.

Miller and Dotterrer made many yards in line plunges, while Perley gained consistently around the ends.

The work of Captain Lavely was again the feature of the game. His end runs netted some big gains for Allegheny. The never-to-be-forgotten stunt of climbing up on the roof of the player's bench for the ball and thus scoring a touchdown, was "Lave's" premier accomplishment.

Coach Stewart, after the game, was well pleased with the result and said the victory was due largely to the game spirit of the players.

The import of this victory is hard to realize. Geneva last year carried off the championship of the Western Pennsylvania League. Already this season they held W. & J. to 0-0 and were having high hopes of the recurrence of last year's happening. To defeat them by a small score was the best that Coach Stewart's prodigies had hoped for. The twenty-two points, however, were very thankfully received.

The weather man seems to be favoring the football schedule this year. Although a little uncomfortable for the players, the warm air proved a good stimulant for the spectators. The dust on the field added somewhat to the discomfort of the players.

Geneva Rushed Down the Field.

Things started to happen as soon as Geneva kicked off. On the first down "Lave" made one of his famous end runs for fifteen yards. Soon after, Hawk punted to within one foot of the goal. To be on the safe side Geneva kicked on their first down. Hawk, on receiving the punt made a long run and after several other shorter gains the ball was brought near the goal.

Miller tried a place kick but failed and the ball was put in play at the twenty-five yard line. Geneva was seldom able to gain their distance in the three downs and this time was no exception. On the third down they

Little Tots

Miss Spalding Gives the Kids an Outing. Riotous Proceedings.

On last Tuesday afternoon the little tots of the Freshman class who happen to have their habitation in Hulings Hall—that wonderful place upon the contents and nature of which every newcomer speculates until Thanksgiving Day and then finds that things are not what they seem—these little tots of this hall took themselves and their friends out in the country for a little frolic. It seems that they had a "perfectly grand time," to say nothing of the new acquaintances made, and the corn, which was beautifully roasted.

Of course, a few upperclassmen had to be along to see that all went well and Miss Spalding, who takes a motherly interest in the children and calls them all by their first names,

One of the Foremost Contraltos of the Country Will Give a Concert at the Baptist Church Tuesday Evening.

One of the most noteworthy musical events of the year will be the recital given at the Baptist church of this city on next Tuesday evening by Miss Christine Miller, of Pittsburg, assisted by Mr. Carl Bernthaler, conductor of the Pittsburg orchestra. The affair is being managed by James Andrew Bortz, manager of the college Glee Club, who managed the concert given in the college chapel by Miss Miller last spring.

Miss Miller is heralded by the foremost musical critics of the country as being one of the most artistic concert contraltos in the United States. The solo positions held by her in recent years are the largest in the country. She has already signed contracts to be soloist with the New York Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Walter Damrosch, in a spring tour of eight weeks. She will also appear in the near future with the Pittsburg orchestra, the Cincinnati orchestra, the Chicago Mendelssohn Glee Club, the Boston Apollo club and the New York City Oratorio club under Frank Damrosch.

From now until Christmas Miss Miller has but three open dates, one of these being her engagement here next Tuesday. She will likely appear with the Allegheny College Glee Club at two other out-of-town dates in the near future.

The program for the musical is as follows:

Morning Hymn .....Henschel

Union Meeting

Dr. Cobern Makes Eloquent Plea for Support of Mission Study by Student Body.

The monthly union prayer service of the Christian Associations on last Wednesday evening was led by Dr. Cobern, who talked informally on the outlook for the mission study class which is to be under his direction during the coming year. Dr. Crawford then spoke along the same line, expressing the opinion and hope that this year would be bigger and better than ever before in the field of mission study.

After being introduced, Dr. Cobern lost little time in getting to the heart of his subject and said in part:

"The class in mission study which has been held here in recent years has been of a very phenomenal nature. It has been widely known and much spoken of throughout the country, and in proportion to the college enrollment has been the largest single class in any of the colleges or universities." He further spoke of the fact that the success of the class in past years had been largely due to the effective work done by Dr. Smith and said that he felt incompetent to undertake the task of teaching the class.

In speaking more specifically of the proposed work of the year he said that it could not fail to be interesting since every land which would be stud-

THE MANAGER'S TALK.

Thoughtlessness is often as serious in its results as intentional dishonesty. It takes approximately 300 copies of THE CAMPUS to supply the students. Perhaps half that number of subscription slips have been turned in to the manager. You are not required to pay for your paper in advance, but you are asked to give your name to the manager, in order that he may be able to estimate accurately the number necessary to supply his subscribers. To him it means a saving in time and money. To you it means better service and a better paper. Our interests are one. Let's get together.

THE CRISIS.

A crisis in the football season is reached today. In fact it seems as if a turning point has come in the athletic history of Allegheny. The attention of the Western Pennsylvania football world is directed toward the game with Grove City. If we lose, all the bright prospects now dawning will be eclipsed, but if we win, the championship is in our grasp.

The team is ready to do their part; the student body must do theirs. Every man a rooter is the watchword. Cheer Leader Hilborn is hoping to make today a memorable one with the aid of the student body. Will a single man dare to give Grove City his silent support by not participating in the rooting?

THE COUNCIL.

At certain times last year doubt was expressed about the usefulness of the College Council as now constituted. The work accomplished by the Council already this year is the strongest refutation of any such charges. In addition to performing its routine duties efficiently it has shown a progressive spirit by changing the form of the annual class contest so as to insure more interest and a fairer scrap. Whether the "barrel rush" will be made a permanent tradition or not is of small importance, however, as compared to the fact that the student legislative body is alert and active. The Council has demonstrated and will further demonstrate in the future that it is a powerful factor in college life.

A HAMNETT MEMORIAL SERVICE ASSURED.

After the publication of the editorial entitled "Why Not a Hamnett Memorial Service," it was discovered that such a service was planned at the time of Dr. Hamnett's funeral. Unforseen circumstances have delayed the fulfillment of the plans made but the memorial service is now an assured fact and it will be held in the near future. Further announcements will be made later.

MARKED RECOGNITION.

The following extract from the Pittsburg Gazette-Times for Monday, October 17, speaks for itself. It has been for several years the aim of those interested in Allegheny athletics to command recognition from the Pittsburg papers. Coach Stewart's skill and the team's pluck have called forth this approbation voiced in the article reprinted in full:

"Allegheny Surprises the Local Enthusiasts.

"The unexpecedly large score, 22 to 0, Allegheny made against Geneva Saturday furnished the surprise of the Western Pennsylvania football battles. Geneva was rated as possessing strength, while Allegheny was yet unknown. But Stewart succeeded in keeping his hand pretty well gloved, and when he got the Beaverites on his home lot he turned loose his athletes and incidentally brought Allegheny to the front for the time being at least.

"Allegheny was to have played W. and J. earlier in the season, but the game was called off. Stewart, at the time, was very much vexed at the cancellation, then no doubt, knowing he had a strong array of grid'ron talent."

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. service on Sunday evening was led by Miss Gertrude Hillman, '11, who spoke on the subject, "The Gifts We Can Bring." Miss Hillman took for her scripture reference the story of Mary and the alabaster box of ointment, and gave a most interesting talk on the talents which are given to us for helping those with whom we come in contact. Sympathy, kindness and love are gifts which even the poorest may bring to benefit mankind.

The meeting was attended by a large number of the girls.

SECOND TEAM.

In the opening game of its schedule, the college second team was taken into camp by the Slippery Rock Normal School by a score of 5-0. Both teams put up a strong fight and but for a mistaken signal, the second team might have claimed the victory. The Pittsburg papers in some manner published an account of the defeat of Slippery Rock by the Allegheny second eleven.

The winning tally was made in the first quarter. The ball was fumbled on the opponent's fifteen yard line. Captain Biddle, of the Slippery Rock team, snatched it up and before he could be tackled, sped across the line for a touchdown. His try at goal went wide of the mark. During the remainder of the game the ball was repeatedly carried by both teams into the opponent's territory but did not again get very near either goal line.

The two teams were evenly matched in weight but the Slippery Rock boys showed better team work. The Allegheny team was strong on the defensive but was weak in opening up the line and in forming interference. The forward pass was not tried by the Reserves, but was used successfully by the opponents. Both teams punted at opportune times.

The line-up was as follows:

Slippery Rock—5.		Reserves—0.
Barker	L. E.	Borland
Schumaker	L. T.	McKay
Byers	L. G.	Bodenhorn
Edmundson	C.	Cole
McFate	R. G.	Shoup
Martins	R. T.	McNulty
Biddle	R. E.	Wieler
Armstrong	Q.	Pierson
McKinley	L. H.	Hall
Walters	R. H.	Shields
Wolford	F. B.	Hendricks

Touchdown—Biddle.
Referee—McClymonds.
Umpire—S. E. Nichols.
Time of Periods—Two of ten minutes and two of fifteen minutes.

FIRST CELEBRATION.

Enthusiastic Students March Downtown and Build a Bonfire in Front of Hulings.

The decisive victory over Geneva last Saturday was the cause of a great jubilee on the part of the whole student body Saturday night. Headed by the band, everyone marched up town from the field in order to tell the town folk of the victory. At eight o'clock, another celebration began. Dressed in nightshirts and pajamas, the fellows gathered in front of Bentley and then proceeded to visit the homes of several of the professors. Professors Elliott and Lee each responded to a call for speeches and in them complimented the team, the rooters and all the enthusiasts. The course of the procession then led down Main street to the business section of town. Carrying red fire, the parade proceeded down Chestnut street winding in serpentine fashion and keeping step to "Alleghe, Alleghe, Allegheny, Allegheny, Alleghe."

The streets by this time were lined on both sides with on-lokers who cheered after the score had been counted and the yells given. Trouble, in the form of an officer of the law, was encountered further down. He directed that the parade be faced about. His request was granted after some yells had been given.

Hulings Hall furnished the next stopping place. A mammoth fire was kindled and a war dance executed around. After the rooters had yelled themselves hoarse, they adjourned to the terrace in front of the Hall. Songs were sung and after numerous requests, Miss Spalding responded to a call for a speech. The company, tired but happy, broke up soon after.

LITERARY LIGHTS.

board how to get out a good monthly magazine and how to sell it. A review by Mr. Hilborn of an article on "College Courses in Journalism," concluded the literary program.

While refreshments were being served, the question of a cheer leader was brought up. In view of the sentiment expressed last year by Dr. Crawford and others the club felt that it was one of its functions to elect the cheer leader. C. E. Hilborn, '11, was elected with G. W. Mead, '11, and L. C. Harris, '11, as assistants.

Dr. Akers was elected to serve as a member and chairman of the Campus competition committee. The duties of this committee were outlined as consisting of filing and preserving all competition material every week as well as of judging the material. Before this can be done, however, a third member must be chosen by Dr. Akers and Professor Swartley, the Council representative.

STUDENT CONFERENCE.

The first and most important steps in the organization of the Student Volunteers of the colleges in Western Pennsylvania were taken at Grove City on Friday afternoon and evening, October 14. This was the first of the annual conferences which are to be held in the interest of the movement. Five schools, Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny Theological Seminary, Grove City, Westminster and Allegheny, were represented by delegates. Nearly all the other schools in this part of the state sent letters. Mr. Henry S. Leitzel went as the representative of the local Volunteer Band.

The first session of the conference was opened on Friday afternoon with devotional exercises by Mr. Seel, of Grove City. Mr. Swartz, who made such an impression while here recently, then spoke on "The Watchword." After the address, Mr. Leitzel, who had been elected temporary chairman, headed a committee of the whole to discuss the advisability of forming a permanent organization. It was decided that such action should be taken and a committee was appointed to frame a constitution. The name given to the organization was "The Western Pennsylvania Student Volunteer Association for Foreign Missions." Following the adoption of the constitution, the election of officers took place. Those chosen were: president, Mr. Henry S. Leitzel, of Allegheny; vice-president, Mr. J. W. Baird, of Allegheny Seminary; secretary and treasurer, Miss Martha Payne, of Westminster.

The evening session was opened with a song service. Following this, Mr. Swartz again spoke. His topic was "The Demands of the Decisive Hour." The conference then adjourned to meet again next fall at Allegheny.

Much enthusiasm was shown throughout the entire conference and the promoters of the movement expect much good to come from the action taken.

DR. CRAWFORD BUSY.

President Crawford is an exceedingly busy man at present. Not only the increase of the endowment, but also various other affairs connected with the college are demanding all of his time. Last Sunday morning he preached at Nebraska and in the evening at Tionesta. He will preach at Westfield, N. Y. tomorrow.

On Tuesday, Dr. Crawford will go to Pittsburg to meet the Investment Committee of the Board of Trustees of the college. While there he will also meet some of the alumni and discuss plans for carrying the policy of alumni representation into effect. The executive committee of the W. P. I. A. L. will hold an important meeting on that date, at which Dr. Crawford, as president of the league, will preside.

MISS RACHAEL COUSINS GOES TO CHILE.

Quite a large number of college students bade farewell on Wednesday to Miss Rachael Cousins, '07. She went from Meadville directly to New York, where she met Miss Meredith, with whom she is to set sail for South America today. Miss Cousins is to teach in the Methodist College for girls, which is located at Conception, Chile.

Candidates for the Mandolin Club were called together for the first time on Tuesday. About fifteen men reported, the new material being especially promising. Anyone who plays either a mandolin or guitar is requested to hand his name to the leader.

The Forum was not as well attended as it should have been last Thursday. J. H. Moore, '11, and Clair Sweetland, '14, upheld the affirmative and J. M. White, '11, and H. M. Wells, '13, the negative of the question, "Resolved, that President Taft should demand the resignation of Secretary Ballinger." The negative won the debate.

At the last meeting of the Faculty, approval was given to the plan for scheduling a football game on Thanksgiving Day and the manager and coach are in correspondence with several institutions in the effort to arrange a game for that date. It will not be played at home as the local athletic field is engaged on that day for the High School-New Brighton game. The Faculty also gave their approval for a three game schedule for the second team. The scrubs are very anxious to have Slippery Rock here for a return game and if this is arranged the other game will likely be with Edinboro Normal, at Edinboro.

A SIGNAL HONOR.

Faculty Members Receive Invitations to Become Members of Famous London Club.

A signal honor came to Allegheny this week through the invitations to President Crawford, Professor Lee and Dr. Lockwood to become members of the Authors' Club of London. This society is composed of men who have written something worthy of more than local or passing note. The membership is limited to twelve hundred and includes some of the famous authors of the world. Among them are found the names of Thomas Hardy, Alfred Austin, Hall Caine, Sir Oliver Lodge, Dr. Wilhelm Ostwalt, Professor Ladd, Sir William Ramsey, Sir A. Conan Doyle and Anthony Hope Hawkins.

Professor Lee's works on chemistry have attracted wide-spread attention. His "Textbook of Experimental Chemistry" and "Outlines of Qualitative Aanalysis" are counted with the best of college text books. Dr. Crawford's most notable works are "Savonarola, the Prophet," "The Church and the Slum," and "Thoburn and India." Dr. Lockwood has written numerous magazine articles in addition to his book, "Robert Browning."

There is enough phosphorus in the body of the average man to make 483,840 matches, and he would have to travel 483,840 miles to match the "Adler Rochester Clothing," VEITHS.

ACADEMY VICTORIES.

Alden Eleven Annexes Two Games in Championship Form.

Alden 16—Oil City H. S. 0.

Alden Academy continued its good record of the week before when Oil City High was defeated in a 16-0 contest. Notwithstanding the Oil City boys' score made against Titusville the week before, the Academy lads were determined to come back with nothing less than a victory. Three touchdowns were the result.

For the Alden team, Robinson starred, making several long games around the Oil City ends. The first touchdown was made by him after intercepting a forward pass and running 60 yards to the goal. Brooks and Dotterrer also played a fine game, each scoring a touchdown.

The effect of Alden's coaching was evident in this game. Long gains were made possible by the fine interference, while Oil City was unable to gain consistently through the former weak places.

Following is the line-up and summary:

Alden 12—Cambridge Springs H. S. 0.

Wednesday afternoon saw the brown and white victorious over the team representing the Cambridge Springs High School. The score was 12-0. This was the team's first appearance on the home field and a large crowd was out on the side lines and cheered the boys on to victory. A rally meeting was held Wednesday morning after chapel. About forty of the alumni were present and led the boys in their songs and yells.

The game in the afternoon was featured by an intercepted pass, a long run and a touchdown by Robinson. As a whole the team played well, but not so well as in Saturday's game at Oil City. Captain Smith, who played half back, showed good head work and also made a number of long runs. Brooks and Dotterrer, as full backs, distinguished themselves by making consistent gains on line bucks. Horn starred in defense, securing many pretty tackles behind the line. Watson also played a good game and deserves special mention.

The line-up was as follows:

Alden—12.		Cambridge Springs—0.
Gilbert	R. E.	Luffler
Wineman	R. T.	Engstrom, Woods
Horn	R. G.	Smith

SENIOR TEA.

The first of a series of Senior tea parties was held in the parlors of Hulings Hall on Thursday afternoon between the hours of four and six. A new social function has been added to the already replete list of events which make spicy the life of a Senior at Allegheny.

The members of the faculty and their wives, and the Senior men, were given a very hospitable welcome when they arrived at the hall, and were treated to tea and sandwiches and candy sticks.

Misses Saeger, Bassett and Duffy were the committee in charge of this initial tea party.

It is just about time to begin looking around for your winter outfit. There is no place better to begin looking than with that "Adler Rochester Clothing," which VEITHS make a specialty of.

A GLORIOUS VICTORY.

punted. Perley soon after made a break through the line for twenty-five yards. A forward pass to Miller brought the goal but two yards away. An offside penalty, however, increased this distance to seven, a matter of little importance, since on the second down Miller went through the line for the first touchdown.

Punting Duel Helps Allegheny.

Geneva kicked off again after the touchdown. Miller soon after was seen holding with the result that fifteen yard penalty was imposed. The ball see sawed back and forth for some time. Several fine punts were made by both sides. No more scores, however, were registered in this half.

The third period was filled up with sensational plays. After Miller had made ten yards through right tackle, he fumbled. "Townie" was on the pigskin in a second. Punting was again resorted to by both sides to good advantage. Perley was given the signal for a run around right end, and helped by interference a twenty-five yard gain was made. The ball again changed hands and a punt made to Hawk in the center of the field. Townsend began laying Geneva out on the ground, one by one, and the ball again rested within twelve yards of the goal. The Beaverites rallied here and held for downs, but on their first play punted back to Hawk in the middle of the field. Again the performance of running down the field was repeated and on the second attempt Lavely carried it over the goal line. Just before the quarter closed Perley made a run through right tackle for twenty yards.

Two Touchdowns.

At the beginning of the last quarter, Perley attempted a drop kick for goal. It went wide and the ball was put in play on the twenty-five yard line. A punt gave Allegheny possession of the ball again and some fast playing was tried. With the pigskin but twenty-five yards from the goal, Perley went around left end for sixteen yards. Shorter gains of Lavely and Dotterrer saw it reposing within two yards of the goal. An attempt to carry it over failed and Geneva received the ball. On the first down the quarter signaled for a punt that was never kicked. The center passed the ball so high that it landed on the roof of the players' bench. Lavely scrambled on top while J. Stewart waited in vain for his treasure to roll off the roof. This gave Coach Stewart's pupils their third touchdown. Miller kicked goal making the score 16-0.

Some real, live football was soon uncovered. As soon as Dotterrer received the kickoff he started like Jack Johnson's auto and was downed near the center of the field. Hawk, on the first play, circled right end for a sixty-five yard run, which netted a touchdown. This put Captain Lavely's men 22 points to the good with Geneva all to the bad.

With but a few minutes to play, Allegheny started up the field as though for another score. Miller tried a place kick at forty-five yards, but the distance was a little too far so that no further scores were tallied.

Following is the line-up and summary:

UNION MEETING.

ied in the light of missionary work, had a personal interest for Allegheny. He dwelt for some time upon the prediction that the three great world powers a century from today will be America, China and another unknown nation and emphasized the fact that China's remarkable rise in civilization has been due to the work of missionary enterprises in the orient. He closed by showing that the scripture "Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Thy dominion endureth throughout all generations," would be fulfilled through missionary enterprise.

In a few well chosen words Dr. Crawford spoke of the hopes he had entertained for the mission study class of the coming year. He said that he was impressed with the stupendousness of the task and the far reaching significance of this work. He informed the students that the classes in past years had constantly increased from year to year and expressed the belief that "what has been accomplished in the past few years ought to be a stepping stone to greater things."

At the close of the meeting, the names of those expecting to enter the mission study class were taken and orders were received for books. The book to be used is "The Decisive Hour in Christian Missions," by John R. Mott. The class is to be taught by Dr. Cobern and will meet for the first time on next Thursday evening in the oratory of the Chapel.

the fight because the barrel was nearer to their goal than to the other, although the object—to get it over the line—had not been accomplished by either side.

The sides were lined up at opposite ends of the football gridiron and at a pistol shot from the president of the Senior class they made a rush for the padded barrel in the center of the field. Within much less than a minute the barrel was totally out of sight and nothing could be seen but a struggling mass of humanity. Several layers of Freshmen and Sophomores, disagreeably sandwiched together could be discerned on the top of the place where the barrel was supposed to have been. At both sides, the conglomerated mass of enthusiastic, but weakening classmen, was so thick that one could scarcely make out where one left off and the next began.

The difficulty, which soon became apparent to both classes, was of transporting the barrel from its stubbornly stationary position to one of the goals, for strive and grunt as they might, neither side could accomplish much in the moving line. However, the larger numbers of the Freshmen proved fatal to the hopes of the Sophomores and at the end of the fifteen minute period the barrel had been moved ten or fifteen yards toward the 1914 goal.

LITTLE TOTS.

could not be left behind. She was accompanied by E. P. Kennedy, who in his double capacity as ex-captain of the football team and president of the dramatic club, was, as rumor has it, frequently called upon by the little ones to stand on his head, or to illustrate the way in which a man should properly be tackled, or to recite some lines of one of the Duzer Du plays. But it is said that he answered all requests by bouncing the youngsters on his knee.

The frisky and intemperate nature of the children became almost uncontrollable at times and it is affirmed that the upperclassmen had all they could do to keep some of the more spirited lads from breaking away to climb a tree. A sad calamity was narrowly averted when the boys, cutups that they are, took off their coats and sped away on some riotous expedition, only to return to find that their garments had been purloined by the girls of the party. Wicked girls!

The trip on the whole was of a wild and riotous nature and such as the little fellows and their playmates must not indulge in again.
