Dear Mr. Reynolds:

I am sorry on your account that the Mobilization article did not go over. It is a case of too many cooks I am afraid at the Headquarters. However, Mrs. Maloney did publish the first piece I wrote - done for her - and this was a kind of a hedge podge that grew out of two or three other efforts. So just send it back and don't bother. One of these days I hope I will have something that will be worth your while. I feel guilty about having troubled you with this.

Very sincerely

Mr. Paul Reynolds
