Miss Ida M. Tarbell
Am. Mag. &c

My dear Miss Tarbell,

- I have been from home for a day or so, and this is why you did not receive
- answer to your queries at once.

= I had just called my daughter's
- birthday when I made my first check.
- school before I left was fifteen - to stand on my own feet. and with the ultimate intent not to give my Mother necessities which she had, but to restore to her the beauty and delight of the existence of her youth and early maturity. I did not need to wait till this day of Radicalism to act on the belief that, regardless of the environment, a girl could and should make her own way in the world as surely as a boy.

= Aunts the other matter:-

I did copyist work for a Publishing House and for various law firms. - and Taught in a Country District School for a time. - Nature may have intended me for a preacher but I doubt she ever meant me for a (School) teacher - unless perhaps in the matter of discipline!

= The debate on which I took in was advertised as upon "Woman's Rights and Wrongs".

And the original denunciation of me Chlan was at a Convention of the Pennsylvania Anti Slavery Society held in Chester County soon after the Battle

7 Ball's Bluff

= I. Too was sorry the talk was abbreviated, and will be glad to continue it.

Mrs. Ackley is again in town and he rowl down into Manhattan 4 times, and will come in to see you. When do you need the further information?

= A damaged foot is a bad companion and you must get rid of it by allowing it the opportunity of a holiday, - don't be in haste to give it exercise!

= Mrs. Ackley joins me in cordial regards,

Always sincerely,
Anne L. Dickinson
