

July 14" [1937?]

My dear Edw:-

The volume of "Land Court" has not arrived - as yet - maybe here in say or two. Thanks you -

Very sorry I didn't get a glimpse of you when you were flying by - perhaps next time you can stop!
I hope so, always as interested when I do not see you - but I know you want to. -

What do you think of our journal of Pratt? -

I can not tell you how sorry I am about all the contracts & papers in regard to McKinley & his brother Abner + McKelvey's brother-in-law - father destroyed. He felt, that anything he would do in regard to the matter - "The people would always think McKelvey never do anything wrong - he was a fellow (McKelvey was) -

Father helped Abner in a Telegraph business - when printed the books - Abner tried to work it out in New York City & he & his wife lived there & father furnished the money - finally father went to N. Y.
 & found it no good - so that was a failure -

These fashions ³ went into the Zinc Bureau with my uncle Brother in Law & surely was a mistake all the way thru - & a failure.

I do not know of any one living that was interested & even the bankers are all dead - & the lawyer that did every thing he could for father & was ready to ~~see~~ see me kindly for my safety which ~~me~~ kindly promised me for taking care of his own notes - died - he even made trip to Washington & kindly told him to tell me "he would pay me, if I would wait little." while kindly saw Post. If one could not was the Cashier - The Bank Officers Rags Justice of C. D. Hines Lawyer in Jennings town - Sent Middlet the Cashier out West & he has never returned.

The bank was closed.

I must not write any more -

I thank God they are away from this World -

The yard, horses, has been very much improved -
Every year,

||| Tried to keep father cheerful & we did everything we could & he was better - dear father always helping others & coming out -

When Joe Butler wrote the Proact I have known wanted me to spend two or 3 weeks helping with the failure - I would not be in same office with him - the dirty man, that he was & dishonest, the way he made his money - he wrote as mean as he could -

Mother always felt she didn't want it brought up - as only make more

Talk & would never be with father - I think that was why? destroyed everything.

I was so nervous at the time - because I did not take the matter up at the time - George.

The men wanted McKinley to be Pres. sometime & that was what they were working for. -

It is lonely if you to offer & you know how much I rely on mother & father & myself at moments, your evidence - but as the papers are gone - cannot do anything.

I can think & hope it will not be long, until I will be with you, &
we can be happy -

Since I have been away from Poland & Youngstone many, many have died - I know very few of the business men, all new or sons of the ones I knew -

Mrs. Holmes missing gone - she can tell her name in Holmes - not one friend in the home she knows, not even my name - seems to realize I am there for something - I have to look her + lately seem very weak - when I ask her about some of her family - + she could think does not know what I am talking about - talks to herself - about things that never happened etc - so sad - we go down stairs every day

Mrs. Ellen has her eye right - can read + see. I see very careful not to show her eye.

Mrs. Peter + Thomson died this Spring - he didn't ~~didn't~~ ⁹ learn her enough to live on - his sons helped her - I think she had cancer. -

Do wish Drill was well - he was such a fine man & so full of energy -

Sorry Ted had the accident & hope will not have any more trouble with her foot.

I am awfully sorry about all the contracts & papers & letters -

Mother's sister Aunt Sue died in May - last of family - ⁸⁵₇₂ Nattie Guy died in June, the was 82. -

I have written long letters hope you can read it -

Love to each one -

Lovefully yours

C.

When you can write,

[Clara Walker]
