

97
Editor of McClures Magazine

Sir. The article in McClures for May on the pursuit and capture of Booth is a very interesting article, but seems to me incomplete, inasmuch as it does not tell if the rewards, offered, were paid and if so, in what manner, also the name of the monitor on which Booths body lay at the Washington Navy Yard was "Saugus" not as stated in the article "Saugatuck".

Respectfully .

S. C. Van Tassel
Yonkers
N.Y.

Capt of
U. S. Monitor

"Mahopac"
at the Navy Yard Washington when the above mentioned events took place.