

342 MADISON AVENUE
NEW YORK

September 7, 1934

Miss Ida Tarbell
Reading
Connecticut

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Miss Morgan has just sent a cable telling us that it is impossible for Miss Hoffman to attend the dinner this year. In it she suggests that possibly you might be willing to call your judges together again at a luncheon meeting at her house as soon as Miss Rogers is home from Europe which I judge will be around the 15th and consider the other candidates whom you rejected last time. Would it be possible for you to do this? If so, Miss Rogers will communicate with you as soon as she returns and you can select a date.

Sept 10
I know that Mrs. John Sheppard is back from Europe and Miss Lane is available now so that you would probably have little trouble in getting them together.

We would greatly appreciate your aid in this situation.

Sincerely yours,

Pauline Wendigo

PEM:K