November 4, 1930

Dear Miss Mandigo:

I have your letter of November Third, asking me to serve on the Committee of judges which is to award a distinguished service medal at the dinner given by the American Women's Association on November Seventeenth. I sincerely regret that it is not possible for me to accept. I shall be out of New York that week.

Please believe I appreciate the compliment you pay me in this invitation.

Very sincerely yours

Miss Pauline E. Mandigo
