Dear Miss Tarbell:

At Mr. Dennison's request I am sending you herewith a copy of your story after it has been changed in minor ways by Mr. Dennison. He told me before he went to Washington on the last trip, that you would be glad to go over it finally for any changes you may have to make. May I, therefore, ask you to return this with your comments at your convenience?

With kindest regards, I am

Yours very truly,
