then after the strategy
I did not know/that the initial striking out of the ~~foundations of my sense of a secure plan in this under-~~ beliefs ~~stood and fixed world~~, that I never again would be sure about anything. I would be forever asking when confronted with a problem, a system, a scheme, ~~asking to accept a code, a faith, a~~ way of doing things, forever asking what is behind this, below it or above it. Is this all? Am I to accept this unful with the knowledge I have on the faith of those who are tied to it, who do accept it? Can I accept it and rest on it?
~~That is, am I to accept intellectual security?~~ tragedies

I did not know what ~~prejudice~~ of doubt and uncertainty, the discovery that the world was not made in seven days of twenty four hours each, was opening to me.
