It is indeed a pleasure to me to give you any assistance in my power. I at once consulted Mr. B. F. Ellis, formerly of this place, now of Jamstown, but visiting here. He gave me a number of names of persons belonging to his company, and recited some very interesting incidents about the Lincolns. I send you some of them on separate manuscript.

Mr Ellis also says that Judge Henderson, of Crawford County was also a member of the company. He speaks especially of Mr. Drickson of Mercer as a valuable man to see. He is a son of D. V. Drickson, originally captain of the company.

Hoping that I may have been of some little assistance to you in your worthy enterprise, and that the reminiscences sent may be of value, I remain

P.S. - If there is anything further that I can do to aid you, I shall be only too glad.
